#FOALS FOCUS

The final week of Saddle Horse Report's second annual #foalsNfocus photo contest was a competitive battle, indicative of this year's photogenic foal crop. Each week you shared with us so many heartwarming shots that made us both smile and say, "yeah boy!"

Josh Noble sent in the shot that was voted Champion for this final week. This regal Morgan colt is sired by Saralin Seabourn out of With Every Breath. He is owned by Burkland Farm and bred by Charlene McCarthy and John Suprenant.

Reserve Champion honors went to the beautifully athletic Caitlin Reason shot of Wingswept Hear Me Roar, which was submitted by Stephanie Brannan. Owned and bred by Wingswept Farm, this colt is by My Royale Charm out of Bueno Chica.

The Top 3 spot belonged to Emma Utoft who submitted her playful picture of the Utoft family's colt by Tango's Daylight out of Second Star To The Right.

The response to this year's contest was so good we are now adding a Grand Champion round. Starting on Monday, June 22 and running through noon, Monday, June 29, the pictures of each week's Champion from this year will be available in a folder on the Saddle Horse Report Facebook page for you to vote on our Grand Champion for 2020.
