#FOALS N FOCUS

The arrival of spring and new foals has never been needed as badly as now. There's something about longer, sunny days, green grass, and the unfolding of newborn legs that fuels the souls of horsemen.

You once again sent us the assortment of cuteness that we look forward to each week. The Report staff voted a photo of a colt named "Shooter" the Champion for week four. Submitted by Jessica DeHart, this son of Noble Bravehart and Nightly Nirvana was striking a majestic pose for the win.

Top 3 this week went to an artistic shot of Half Pint and her filly by A Rare Temper. Stevie Bagdasarian submitted her picture of the pair owned by Grace Arnold.

Saddle Horse Report continues to celebrate the foal crop of 2020 for the next several weeks. Email your best shots to funkhouser@saddlehorsereport.com and include the sex, breeding, and owner.
