#foalsNfocus

One of the encouraging tidbits that has come out of the weekly #foalsNfocus photo contest is the fact that there are breeders of American Saddlebreds and Morgans virtually all across the country. Yes, there are certainly concentrated areas, especially with the professional breeding farms, however, a good number of small breeders from coast to coast and many points in between have been represented on the pages of #foalsNfocus with the proud results of their efforts.

This week the winning photo was of a Morgan foal from A & M Stables, Hagerstown, Indiana. Leah Borders submitted the picture of a colt by ECS Made You Tense (by Spiceolife Present Tense GCH) and his nurturing mother, Lapps Innocent Flicka. Reserve Champion honors went to Jan McGlaughlin's photo of his big-eyed, home-bred colt by Betamax out of My Gypsy Symphony. Coming in with a Top 3 finish was a submission from Stacia Castillo of a statuesque colt by Callaway's Northern Kiss out of Good Nite, a Carl Lynn daughter who is out of a world's grand champion CH Man On The Town / world's champion of champions, CH Reedann's Nighty Nite daughter.

Send your entries to funkhouser@saddlehorsereport.com and include the sex of the foal, the breeding and the owner.
