

LOOKING BACK... Memories

THE 2010 UPHA CHAPTER 5

Molly Pruetz started off her world titled career in the leadline division. She was joined by her proud parents John and Gina Pruetz and grandparents John and Georgie Green.

The ladies of Ever Glades Farm enjoyed a successful show including Missy Hughes-Smith's Five-Gaited Championship victory aboard Ylang Ylang. Harriet Townshend made the victory pass in the Walk/Trot Equitation Championship, while Alice Rowland starred with CH Callaway's Winning Number.

Dwayne Kinderknecht and Karrie Graham celebrated a victorious show with Fay and Jim Lowry. They teamed up to present Show Pleasure Driving Champion CH A Cinderella Story and Ladies Three-Gaited winner CH Stonecroft Nightlight.

Bob, Tonya and Morgan Brison along with Valery Kron enjoyed a successful show for Fairview Farms. Morgan starred with Soquill's Sir Galahad as the Junior Exhibitor Three-Gaited Show Pleasure Champions.

UPHA Chapter 5 featured Pink Ribbon Night with the Amateur Five-Gaited Championship serving as the grand finale. Members of the Pink Ribbon committee made the presentation to Undulata's Health Nutt and Jessica Curl.

Anna Marie Knipp enjoyed a stunning debut with It's Dan The Man to win the Amateur Fine Harness and Fine Harness Jackpot. They went on to win the 2010 World's Champion Amateur Ladies Fine Harness along with the UPHA National Champion Amateur Fine Harness.

Max and Chris Kaplan enjoyed a victorious show under the direction of Mike Roberts. Max drove CH Late Nite's Basic Impact to the AHHS Youth Medallion Road Pony win, while Chris made the Ladies Fine Harness victory pass for the fourth year in a row with Lady Vol.
