#foalsNfocus

As the weekly #foalsNfocus photo contest starts to wind down for the season the quality and content of photos continues to be outstanding. This year has shown us we're breeding some stunning and adorable American Saddlebreds, Morgans, and Hackneys with a few kids mixed in to make for a great collection of photos for everyone's enjoyment but most of all, we are happy to provide this forum as a place the breeder's pride can shine through photographs.

This week's winner has been a part of the breeding sector since her former multi-titled world's champion of champions, CH My Front Page Lady retired to the broodmare ranks. Amy Dix Rock presented this week's top shot of CH That's Exactly Right (The Cheetah x Callaway's Exacta) with her colt, Top Down, by world's grand champion Top Of The Mark. It is a Stevie Bagdasarian photo.

Jackie Wahrmond submitted the Rhiannon White photo of recipient mare Brava Blue and an adorable filly by Mountainview's Heir To Fortune to claim Reserve Champion honors. The filly's dam, Whispers of Moonlight, had to be put down last year.

Top 3 was a beautiful, but innocent looking filly by Dressed Up GCH out of Merriehill Soul Sister. This picture was submitted by owners/breeders Walt and Margaret Gladstone.

With two more weeks left, submit your high resolution photo to funkhouser@saddlehorsereport.com and include the sex of the foal, the breeding, and the owner.
