MORGAN HIGH POINT REPORT

BY SARA PIZZUTO

OPEN PARK SADDLE

Ledgefields Jagged Edge reached the pinnacle of success in the Morgan industry in 2021 as the Park Saddle World Champion. It was no surprise that this athletic performer also climbed to the top of the High Point Report open park saddle leaderboard with 120 points. Dr. Grace Steere's son of Get Busy celebrated an undefeated year in his first season out of the junior horse ranks. With David Rand in the saddle, the first of Jagged Edge's six outings came with a sweep of the Morgan open park saddle competition at the UPHA Chapter 14 Spring Premiere Horse Show. He then traveled to New England Morgan to claim two additional victories including the prestigious title of the Park Saddle East Coast Grand Champion. Jagged Edge's final appearances of the year resulted in the victory pass as the Park Saddle Grand National Champion and the blanket of roses as the Park Saddle World Champion.

Dragonsmeade Eltanin was yet another entry that excelled in his first year in the open division. Lora Lyons' son of And The Beat Goes On and HVK Obsidian netted 92 points to claim the reserve spot on the open park saddle High Point Report. Eltanin's four open park saddle appearances began at the Jubilee Regional where trainer Tim Roesink scored the Park Saddle Open victory, while Lyons was in the saddle for the reserve streamers in the Park Saddle Grand Championship. Roesink then took over in Oklahoma City where Eltanin earned the reserve honors in both the Park Saddle Grand National qualifier as well as the Park Saddle World Championship.

LADIES PARK SADDLE

Queen's Yankee Spirit's mid-season switch to the park saddle division proved worthwhile as the entry of Martins Farm LLC earned not only a world title but the top spot in the ladies park saddle High Point Report leaderboard. Mandy Robinett campaigned the Fire Stables trained entry in the park ranks beginning at the Jubilee Regional. It was here where the Queen's Glory Days sired entry captured the first of his 80 total points as the Park Saddle Ladies winner. This duo then made two thrilling performances amongst stiff competition in Oklahoma City to end the season as the Park Saddle Ladies Gelding Grand National Champions and the Park Saddle Ladies World Champions.

Marcie Palmer Eaton competed with her beloved Nittany's Boogie Time to garner 73 total points and the reserve spot on this year's ladies park saddle High Point Report. The Waterford Farm trained son of Rowenda Boogie On Down scored points from five classes at four horse shows including top ribbons at both UPHA Chapter 14 Spring Premiere and New England Morgan. Boogie Time was also the Park Saddle Ladies victor at WNY Morgan on his way to Oklahoma City. He concluded his season with the fifth place prize in the Park Saddle Ladies Gelding offering as well as the fourth place finish in the Park Saddle Ladies World Championship.

AMATEUR PARK SADDLE

A grand total of 121 points propelled Old School Groove to the top of the Morgan amateur park saddle leaderboards-with top honors from nine classes at five horse shows. Tamara Moravec's RWJ Commanding Topic GCH sired entry first accrued amateur park saddle points with Lucia Struck in the saddle as the Morgan Park Saddle Amateur/Junior Exhibitor Grand Champions at the Diamond Jubilee show. Moravec then took the reins to earn a victory pass at Charity Fair as well as the reserve honors in the park saddle amateur ranks from Morgan Medallion Regional. Oklahoma City then saw top ribbons from this team including the fourth place prize in the Park Saddle Amateur Masters World Championship. Jingle Bell was their final trip of the season, where Old School Groove and Moravec swept the Morgan park saddle amateur/junior exhibitor division.

Firewind Kakewalk marched off with 107 total points and the reserve title on this season's amateur park saddle High Point Report. Michelle Quinlisk was aboard her Taylor River Farm trained performer, beginning their season with competitive prizes at both UPHA Chapter 14 Spring Premiere and Greater Boston Charity. The BKC Valiant Star sired entry made two

JUNIOR EXHIBITOR PARK SADDLE

Sylvia Peterson's first season aboard Kinzu Giovanni Cavalli culminated with the top spot on the Morgan junior exhibitor park saddle High Point Report. The son of Roberto Cavalli scored 106 points from four horse shows all with Peterson in the irons. The Copper Leaf trained pair were named the Park Saddle Junior Exhibitor Grand Champions early in the season at the Morgan Gold Cup Regional. This duo made a victory pass at Jubilee Regional and claimed the reserve honors from the Buckeye Morgan Challenge before setting their sights on the Morgan Grand National. While in Oklahoma City, Giovanni Cavalli finished third in the Park Saddle Junior Exhibitor 15 and Under offering and earned a top ten prize in the Park Saddle Junior Exhibitor World Championship.

Playmor's I'm A Star Too was just three points behind Kinzu Giovanni Cavalli to land in reserve on the junior exhibitor leaderboard with 103 total points. The highly acclaimed son of MSV Shooting Star was presented by Victoria Coryn throughout the season, all while under the direction of Grove Pointe. This pair made victory passes throughout the season at both Morgan Gold Cup and Blue Ridge Classic en route to Oklahoma. They then finished the year as the Park Saddle Junior Exhibitor 16-17 Grand National Champions and the Park Saddle Junior Exhibitor Reserve World Champions.

PARK SADDLE JUNIOR HORSE

In only his first year in the show ring, FP Morning Star rose to the top of the park saddle junior horse charts with 133 total points. Robert B. Morgan's son of TSL Starcraft and Joyce Marie was presented by Selvin Torrez to net points at four different shows. This team earned a trio of reserve finishes from both Morgan Gold Cup and Buckeye Morgan Challenge. The athletic youngster next carried off the tricolor as Jubilee Regional's Park Saddle Junior Horse Grand Champion. Morning Star's final appearances of the year came in Oklahoma City where he was crowned the Park Saddle Three-Year-Old Reserve World Champion after an additional reserve finish in the three-year-old grand national qualifier.

Newcomer ADH Light My Fire quickly gained popularity both with spectators as well as judging panels. The daughter of Leonardo's Cry CH and LVM Steal The Stage accumulated 100 total points in her four outings of the year. With Reese Richey in the saddle, the mare represented Glitter Farms LLC with an undefeated year under saddle beginning at Morgan Gold Cup. She was both the Park Saddle Three-Year-Old victor as well as the junior horse grand champion. Light My Fire then starred in Oklahoma City as the Park Saddle Three-Year-Old World Champion after also earning the grand national qualifier top honors.

JUNIOR EXHIBITOR PLEASURE DRIVING

Jacqueline Schatzberg was a busy young lady in 2021 and rose to the top of the junior exhibitor pleasure driving ranking with one of her many show ring partners, Boxford Imaginaire. The Milestone trained son of Aristocratic Aire garnered 104 points from three horse shows. This duo left the Morgan Gold Cup as the Pleasure Driving Junior Exhibitor Reserve Grand Champions and qualifier reserve finishers. They then swept the pleasure driving junior exhibitor ranks at Blue Ridge Classic before setting their sights on the Morgan Grand National. This commanding pair left the ring for the final time in 2021 as the Pleasure Driving Junior Exhibitor 13 and Under Reserve World Champions.

Out Late and Isabella Charon made their driving debut together in 2021—resulting in an undefeated year in this division. The Broadmoor trained son of Stand And Deliver GCH climbed to the reserve spot in the junior exhibitor pleasure driving division with an even 100 points. The expressive gelding was expertly driven by Charon to sweep the pleasure driving junior exhibitor division at New England Regional. They then starred in Oklahoma as the Pleasure Driving Junior Exhibitor 14-17 Grand National Champions and earned the roses and tricolor as the 14-17 world champions.

CLASSIC PLEASURE SADDLE

Linda Sheridan found a new partner in Flintlocks Envy in 2021 and enjoyed a remarkable season with her mare. Under the direction of Maggi Stables, this Astronomical sired mare was at the top of the classic pleasure saddle High Point Report with a total of 196 points from eight horse shows. Flintlocks Envy sailed down victory lane as the classic pleasure victor at California Spring Fest, Silicon Valley, and Mother Lode Morgan. This duo claimed additional top ribbons from Carousel Charity, Charity and Morgan Medallion. While in Oklahoma City, they were crowned the Classic Pleasure Saddle Masters 61 and Over Reserve Grand National Champions and secured a top four finish in the Classic Pleasure Saddle Masters World Championship. Flintlock's Envy closed out her season in victorious fashion with a sweep of the classic pleasure saddle ranks at Jingle Bell.

Warchest GCH transitioned to the classic pleasure saddle division in 2021 and quickly excelled in his new division. With Lauren Lang in the saddle, this grand performer garnered 190 points from 11 classes to score the reserve spot on this High Point Report. Fire Run Farm is the home base for this son of Whispering War Chant, whose season featured an impressive seven wins from the classic pleasure saddle ranks at Carousel Charity, Oregon Morgan Classic, and Morgan Medallion. He arrived in Oklahoma City to be crowned the Classic Pleasure Saddle Stallion/Gelding Reserve Grand National Champion before finishing in the fourth place position in both the Classic Pleasure Saddle World Championship and the Classic Pleasure Saddle Ladies World Championship.

JUNIOR EXHIBITOR CLASSIC PLEASURE SADDLE

Allison Peek took the reins of Capital View Centurion CH in 2021 with great success as they climbed to the top spot in the junior exhibitor classic pleasure High Point Report. The Lingering Hills trained gelding earned 152 points from 14 classes throughout the season. The Mizrahi sired entry earned competitive ribbons from UPHA Chapter 14 Spring

Premiere, Greater Boston, and Saugerties, and made winning victory passes at Connecticut Morgan, New England, and Massachusetts Morgan. Their season was highlighted by their exciting victory at the Morgan Grand National where they were named the Classic Pleasure Saddle Junior Exhibitor 16 and 17 Grand National Champions.

Dragonsmeade Black Dragon GCH is a beloved member of the von Ballmoos family, who were likely delighted with his reserve finish on the junior exhibitor rankings. The son of And The Beat Goes On and HVK Obsidian netted 145 points beginning at the UPHA Chapter 14 Spring Premiere where he earned two reserve honors from the junior exhibitor ranks with Emma von Ballmoos. This rider then piloted her longtime teammate down victory lane as the Morgan Classic Pleasure Saddle Junior Exhibitor victor from Saugerties. However, the bulk of Black Dragon's accrued points came at the Morgan Grand National with both Emma and Madeline von Ballmoos. Madeline was in the irons to earn the grand national title from the classic pleasure saddle junior exhibitor 13 and under ranks, en route to the reserve world championship honors from the 13 and under world championship. Older sister Emma swept the older juvenile age division, piloting Black Dragon to be crowned the Classic Pleasure Saddle Junior Exhibitor 14-17 World Champions after an additional win in the 14-15 grand national qualifying class.

JUNIOR EXHIBITOR CLASSIC PLEASURE DRIVING

The junior exhibitor classic pleasure driving division was so competitive that two entries tied for the winning spot on the High Point Report. AMHF Black Magic GCH was one of these victors, netting 108 points from three horse shows. The Basic Black sired entry was expertly piloted by Scarlett Spellman under the Legacy Stables banner. They began their season with a sweep of the classic pleasure driving junior exhibitor division at Connecticut Morgan before being named the junior exhibitor reserve grand champions at New England. Their most impressive victories of the season came at the Morgan Grand National where they earned two rounds of honor as both the 14-17 grand national champions and the Classic Pleasure Driving Junior Exhibitor World Champions.

Tied with AMHF Black Magic GCH for the top spot was the Fire Stables trained EKL Visualize. The daughter of JDS Paladin Pazazz also garnered 108 points from three horse shows, all with Barrett Bartley on the lines. The game chestnut swept the junior exhibitor classic pleasure driving division at Morgan Gold Cup and made a single victory pass from the driving ranks at Jubilee. She then earned two impressive third place finishes in both the classic pleasure driving 14-17 grand national qualifier and the classic pleasure driving junior exhibitor world championship.

Legacy Stables celebrated the success of High Point Report winner AMHF Black Magic GCH, as well as the reserve finisher, Acorn Ridge Dutch Design GCH. Katelyn Aho and her teammate garnered 71 points from just two horse shows as they were sent into the reserve position. They made their debut together at New England Morgan where they claimed the red ribbon from the junior exhibitor classic pleasure driving ranks as well as the fourth place prize in the corresponding championship. While in Oklahoma City, this pair were crowned the Classic Pleasure Driving Junior Exhibitor 13 and Under Reserve Grand National Champions and earned a top ten finish in the junior exhibitor world championship.
