DIAMOND JUBILEE 2010

CH So Audacious and Samantha Robinson teamed up for the ASB Three-Gaited Show Pleasure Championship victory following a blue ribbon ride in the junior exhibitor class for Bradley's Stables LLC.

Alex Jeppesen and Sport Coupe matched up for a blue ribbon ride in the walk/trot division cheered on by Anne Speck and Debi Jeppesen. The walk/trot division also featured future world champions including Victoria Walz, Shaunicy Sturm, Kayce Reiner and Haley Attig.

Buttoned Down and Grace Arnold starred as ASB Country Western Pleasure Champions. The handsome son of Periaptor and Bet Your Buttons bred by Arnold's mother Mary McLellan Williams went on to win the world title in 2010.

For the third year in a row, Faragamo GCH was named Diamond Jubilee Morgan Western Pleasure Champion. He made a total of four victory passes at the 2010 Diamond Jubilee with Garn Walker and owner Terri Sturm.

Sharing the ride back to the barn with her grandchild, Ellen McCook was overjoyed to win the Morgan Amateur Western Pleasure Championship with VVM Aleesa.

Cheered on by proud parents Maureen and Skip Coomber, Amelia Coomber started off 2010 as the Diamond Jubilee Saddle Seat Equitation Champion aboard Festival Troubadour.

In addition to a great show for the entries of Blackridge, Bob Hughes was inducted into the Region 7 Trainers Hall Of Fame.

Taylor Walters made several Diamond Jubilee victory passes in equitation and performance as well as collecting Region 7 Awards.

In addition to winning the Diamond Jubilee Walk/Trot Pleasure Championship aboard Willowick Mafia Princess, Shaunicy Sturm collected several Region 7 Awards.

In their team debut, Savannah Sturm and Cabot French Lieutenant topped the Morgan Junior Exhibitor Western Pleasure Championship.

Glory Days CH and Susan McCollough teamed up for a tricolor ride directed by Gerry Rushton, who was the trainer as well as the breeder of the son of CCR's Outrajus Corajus GCH and HVK Dreamscape.

Katie Kabel was the winning teammate of L.A. Ricochet GCH as they topped the Junior Exhibitor English Pleasure Championship. They capped the 2010 season as Junior Exhibitor English Pleasure 13 & Under World Champions.
