#foalsN focus

Reserve Champion honors went to a Morgan breeder from Maine, David Sproul. His shot of a filly by TSL Starcraft out of Aljaks Miss LaDeeDa trying to figure out her new surroundings was just adorable. Top 3 this week belonged to a Stevie Bagdasarian shot of a colt by Calif First Night Out whose dam is Charming Calypso. Kristen Bagdasarian submitted the photo on behalf of owner/breeder, Cater Stables.

This next week is the season finale for #foalsNfocus. Send your best high-resolution shot to funkhouser@saddlehorsereport.com and include the sex of the foal, the breeding and the owner.
