The first wave of 2023 foals are now on the ground, giving those breeders a glimpse of the future. There are still many long, sleepless nights left in foaling season but here is the first week of #foalsNfocus.

The Champion came to us from the west coast with Teri Rumens' submission of a talented filly by Dragonsmeade Sea Dragon out of FRF Bridalveil, a DBA Street Talk daughter who was a former champion in the pleasure driving division. Reserve Champion honors went to a Melissa Moore photo of a proud colt by Arrowhead's Bateleur out of Facebook Famous (Dylann's Desert Admiral x Callaway's Compulsion). He is owned by Pam Heiman.

Top 3 for this first week was a curious meeting of a six-day-old filly by Sultan's Great Day out of Bueno Chica and a nine-week-old English Lab puppy named Cheyenne. Stephanie Brannan submitted this picture, which is of the first of 18 expected foals this season.

Submit your best high resolution 2023 foal picture to funkhouser@saddlehorsereport.com and be a part of the next week's contest. Include the foal's sex, breeding and owner.
