

GRAND CHAMPION

#foalsN focus Championship

For the first time Saddle Horse Report offered a Grand Prize winner for its weekly #foalsNfocus photo contest. For 12 weeks our readers submitted their best foal shots from across the country and from our weekly winners we narrowed it down to four shots. On June 21, voting took place on the Saddle Horse Report Instagram page with the following results.

Grand Prize honors went to a Jade Petersen photo that was submitted by Morgan breeder Dave Helmuth of Seymour, Iowa. This perfectly sculpted foal, named Cool Your Heels, is sired by Cool Whip out of RWF Finest Hour. For his win, Helmuth received a $1,000 advertising credit, a year's subscription (online and print), and a copy of the 2021 Year In Review book.

Reserve Grand Champion honors went to a beautiful picture of a mom and foal that was submitted by Amanda DuPont. The Morgan colt is by Warpath GCH out of CBMF By Popular Demand.

Good luck to all the breeders who welcomed their 2022 foals to the world. Next spring, we'll do it all again.
