#foalsN focus

The final week of the #foalsNfocus photo contest attracted a great array of shots, even some from the Standardbred roadster world. With our largest turnout, unfortunately several pictures didn't make the Top 10 for this page. It has been so much fun seeing babies from around the country with entries covering the American Saddlebred, Morgan, Hackney, Dutch Harness Horse and Standardbred breeds.

Stay tuned for announcements on how you, our readers, can vote for the Grand Champion round.

And wouldn't you know it, we had a tie for Champion of this final week. Louise Gilliland submitted her second winner of the year with her son's photo of their expressive colt by Winsdown Highlander out of Vintacular (by Delirium). This colt is a full brother to reserve world's champion Winsdown The Scotchman.

Co-Champion honors went to an adorable photo taken by Jerry Mohme and submitted by Suzanne Mohme. The colt in the front is by Doctor Dobro out of Cheez N Crackers, while the filly is by Fort Chiswell's Royal Kiss out of Fox Grape's Mountain Laurel who is by Undulata's Nutcracker out of world's champion Himalaya.

Jimmy Stachowski submitted the Reserve Champion for this final round. His shot was of a filly by Art Of The Deal out of Flaunting. She is owned by his mom, Shawn.
