#FOALS N FOCUS

Again, one of the most enjoyable parts of this past week was reviewing all the #foalsNfocus pictures that were submitted. Foals mean hope and the future and we all need that right now.

Making us smile the most was the Melissa Moore picture of Grey Ridge's Black Mamba, a foal by Riversdreams Black Pearl who is a son of Sultan's Great Day and a half-sister to world's grand champion CH The Daily Lottery. The acrobatic Vegas Lady (Northern Vegas x CH Open Arms) is the dam of Black Mamba who is owned by Bret and Susi Day.

Reserve Champion this week was also a Melissa Moore photo as she's been busy at her Sunrise Stables. The reserve photo is of a colt sired by Gomez, a son of CH Call Me Ringo and Arrowhead's Mortisha. This uniquely marked baby, owned by Joe O'Brien, is out of Undulata's Miracle Whip.

Top 3 went to Laura Maxson's entry of a 9-day-old Morgan filly by Ingate's Eye Of The Tiger out of Valley Acres Antebellum. Eye Of The Tiger is a young sire by Robert Mondavi out of Lady Derringer.

The contest continues throughout foaling season so send your best shots to funkhouser@saddlehorsereport.com and include the sex, sire and dam, and owner.
