#foalsN focus

Horsemen are probably their happiest in the spring as there is great hope for new teams as well as the arrival of new foals. The early ones have really started to unfold and the Saddle Horse Report readers keep sharing their best shots for #foalsNfocus.

For the second time this spring, Louise Gilliland has submitted the winning photo. From her Oklahoma breeding program, this playful colt is by Winsdown Highlander out of a Winsdown Westinghouse daughter, Winsdown Lady Mary.

Reserve champion this week was a shot of a finely chiseled Morgan, three-day-old filly by Treble's Chrome Plated CH out of Atwood Heliotrope. This shot was submitted by Randal Donelson, Atwood Farm. Top 3 honors for this week went to a Melissa Moore photo of a statuesque colt by Arrowhead's Bateleur out of Callaway's Compulsion. He is owned by Joe O'Brien.

Send your entries for the weekly 2023 foal photo contest to funkhouser@saddlehorsereport.com and include the sex of the foal, the breeding and the owner.
