#FOALS N FOCUS

There have been a lot of late nights in the foaling barns recently as we had our largest number of entries to date for this year's #foalsN-focus and like the previous week's it was a tough choice for the top spots. In fact, this week we had a tie for the Top 3 position.

Andrea Smith submitted the winning photo of Hannah Starlight (Leatherwood's Starlight x Miss Hannah Jane) and her filly by GI Joe. A.E. Nelson's All Roses Farm is the owner/breeder of this gorgeous filly. Miss Hannah Jane is out of the Broodmare Hall of Fame producer, Majestic Jane.

Reserve Champion honors went to Kristen Stonecipher Wells who submitted the picture of her curious colt, "Tex," who is by Undulata's Nutcracker out of her former show mare, CH Elegant Mystery.

We had a tie for the Top 3 placing this week. The first was another photo of "Tex," the leggy Undulata's Nutcracker and CH Elegant Mystery son owned by Kristen Stonecipher Wells. Also in Top 3 was the shot of a proud filly owned by Britni Kovalenko. She is sired by champion Dragonsmeade Spectre, the 2019 Four-Year-Old Pleasure Driving World Champion, out of SDMF Miss Starpiece who was the 2016 Grand National Pleasure Driving Mare Champion.

The contest continues weekly through May so send those 2020 foal shots to funkhouser@saddlehorserreport.com and include the sex of the foal, the breeding and the owner.
