#FOALS N FOCUS

Thank you to all who again submitted heart-warming shots of their 2020 foals for consideration in our ongoing #foalsNfocus contest. This week featured a photo of our first Half-Saddlebred winner, a colt sired by the Dutch Harness Horse, Graaf Kelly out of the American Saddlebred mare, WV Sinfully Irresistible. This adorable photo was submitted by Shalene Neuberger of Neu-View Stables, Custer, Wisconsin.

Reserve Champion honors went to Roxanne Sardelli of Sarde Morgans with her submission of an angelic colt foaled on May 13. He is sired by the multi-titled world champion Graycliff Tony GCH out of Sarde's Supertramp, a daughter of Minion Millennium and Arboria Victor's Pride.

We had another first this week and that was a three-way tie for Top 3. Danny Jenner submitted the photo of Eagle Eyes who is sired by Arrowhead's Bateleur out of Charming Melody. Karen Van Diest also finished Top 3 with a shot of her filly sired by Commander Carrigan Lee out of French Blue (by Deep Blue). Rounding out the Top 3 tie, Eric Griedl sent the photo of Bewitching Eyes and her 2020 foal by Twice Blue, a young son of Master Class.

The contest continues for a couple more weeks so email your best 2020 foals shots to funkhouser@saddlehorsereport.com and include the sex of the foal, the sire and dam, and the owner.
