

CHAMPION

(Far Away Tomahawk x Callaway's Taylor Swift)

#FOALS N FOCUS

Wow! Lots of love for the babies again this week. These photos continue to be a bright spot throughout this uncertainty.

Michael Buchanan submitted the winning shot this week. The beautiful family portrait is a colt by world's champion Far Away Tomahawk with his dam, Callaway's Taylor Swift (Callaway's Blue Norther x Callaway's Agatha Christie BHF). Patrice Watson is the owner of this impressive pair.

Reserve Champion honors went to Melissa Moore who sent us this inquisitive shot of Joe O'Brien's colt by Dylan's Desert Admiral out of Callaway's Compulsion, another daughter of Callaway's Blue Norther. Stevie Bagdasarian was the photographer.

Rounding out the Top 3 is Robin McGahey's photo of his Callaway's Northern Kiss filly out of the former top walk-trot mare, Gossip Girl. She is a looker for sure!

The #foalsNfocus contest is winding down so please be sure to email your entry to funkhouser@saddlehorsereport.com and include the sex of the foal, the breeding, and the owner.
