#FOALS N FOCUS

In this, our next to last week of the #foalsNfocus photo contest, the bar was really raised with several quality shots submitted. Once again, the "hope" of foals is what many in this country need with so much unrest.

North Carolina was represented this week as Sarah Bennett submitted the winning shot for the Matt Shiflet Stables. This beautifully chiseled colt by GI Joe is out of Kiss The Night, a full sister to world's champion of champions CH Honey Badger. This sporty fellow is nicknamed "MJ" for Michael Jordan.

Can you say cocky? Voted Reserve Champion, this Caitlin Reason photo submitted by owner/breeder Stephanie Brannan is of Wingswept Abominable who is by Investment Piece out of Definitely Diana.

Rounding out the Top 3 in this week of stiff competition was a picture of a filly with a gorgeous eye and lots of attitude to go with it. Meagan Hudson's filly is by Daring Don, out of Tiffany Gift.

Thanks again to everyone who proudly submitted pictures of their 2020 foals. This coming week is the last round of #foalsNfocus for the season so to be included, please go through your best shots and email them to funkhouser@saddlehorsereport.com, along with the sex of the foal, the breeding and the owner.
