OPEN PARK SADDLE

Queen's Yankee Spirit has long been an outstanding park saddle competitor. He was the 2021 Ladies Park Saddle World Champion and this year, excelled with three different riders to claim the top spot in the Open Park Saddle High Point Report leaderboard. Isabella Vincenza Alessio's Queen's Glory Days sired entry earned a total of 112 points from 5 different horse shows. Evan Orr earned top ribbons aboard Yankee Spirit at Southern States, Midwest Charity, and Blue Ridge Classic. Isabella Vincenza Alessio then took the reins to be named the Morgan Park Saddle Open Stake Grand Champion at the North Carolina State Championship before Yankee Spirit traveled to Oklahoma City for the Morgan Grand National. With David Cater in the saddle, Queen's Yankee Spirit capped his season as the Park Saddle Reserve Grand National Champion.

Ledgefields Jagged Edge has made a name for himself in the park ranks beginning with his sensational junior horse career. He reached the pinnacle of success in the Morgan industry in 2021 as the Park Saddle World Champion and finished 2022 with a nearly unblemished record. Dr. Grace Steere's son of Get Busy netted 97 points and the reserve spot on the open park saddle leaderboard. His first outing of the season came at New England Regional where David Rand rode the stallion to sweep the open park saddle ranks, including the top honors in the Park Saddle East Coast Championship. Jagged Edge then returned to Oklahoma City where he was crowned the Park Saddle Grand National Champion en route to the reserve streamers in the Park Saddle World Championship.

LADIES PARK SADDLE

Stone Pine Charlotte began the 2022 show season with her new teammate, Elizabeth Ciccone. It was a partnership that proved successful as the Lingerin Hills trained mare earned the top spot on the ladies park saddle leaderboard. The daughter of SpiceOLife Present Tense GCH earned 86 points from five classes. She was the Park Saddle Ladies victor at both Greater Boston and Connecticut Morgan and scored the reserve honors from New England Morgan. Elizabeth Ciccone and Stone Pine Charlotte closed out their first year together at the Morgan Grand National where they scored impressive third place finishes in the competitive ladies park saddle ranks.

The mother-daughter duo of Tadgy Stacy and Mallory Sciaraffa worked together to help DRF Charlemagne GCH garner 74 total points and the reserve spot on the ladies park saddle leaderboard. The multi-titled Stonecroft Byzantine sired gelding excelled in the ladies division at two horse shows and three classes. Tadgy Stacy had the riding assignment to earn a victory pass with Charlemagne at Morgan Gold Cup. She handed over the reins to her daughter, Mallory Sciaraffa, for the Park Saddle Ladies Reserve Grand National title as well as the Park Saddle Ladies Reserve World Championship honors.

AMATEUR PARK SADDLE

For the second year in a row, it was Old School Groove who rose to the top of the Amateur Park Saddle High Point Report. Tamara Moravec's RWJ Commanding Topic GCH sired entry netted a total of 163 points from 12 classes at seven horse shows. Moravec and her Miller Equestrian trained teammate made amateur park saddle victories at Carousel Charity, Diamond Jubilee, Charity Fair, Santa Barbara National, and Jingle Bell. They earned the reserve honors at Morgan Medallion and then journeyed to Oklahoma City. While there, Old School Groove teamed up with Moravec to score a multitude of top ribbons in both the amateur and amateur masters divisions for 75 points.

SSLLC Ironman GCH finished just a mere three points behind Old School Groove to claim the reserve spot on the amateur leaderboard. This was yet another David Rand trained park horse to excel throughout the 2022 show season. The son of HVK Man About Town finished the season with 160 points after his showings with Jane Bowers in the saddle. Together, Bowers and Ironman earned amateur park rounds of honor from UPHA Chapter 14 Spring Premiere, Connecticut Morgan, Summer Kick Off, and Massachusetts Morgan. SSLLC Ironman GCH was the Park Saddle Amateur red ribbon recipient at the New England Morgan Horse Show and continued that success at the Morgan Grand National. This pair concluded their year by accumulating points as the Park Saddle Amateur Masters Grand National Champions and the Park Saddle Amateur Masters Reserve World Champions.

JUNIOR EXHIBITOR PARK SADDLE

Valley Acres Just N Time was still eligible for junior horse competition in 2022. The talented four-year-old triumphed in the junior exhibitor ranks with Claire Kiley, garnering 106 points at the top of the junior exhibitor park saddle leaderboard. Bert Earehart trained this son of SpiceOLife Present Tense GCH, who earned top junior exhibitor honors from three horse shows. With Kiley in the saddle, Just N Time swept the junior exhibitor park saddle ranks at the prestigious New England Morgan Regional. The team then traveled to Jubilee where they were crowned the Park Saddle Junior Exhibitor Reserve Grand Champions. Their final junior exhibitor appearances came in Oklahoma City, where they scored 30 more points on the Morgan breed's biggest stage.

AW Global Vision GCH's transition to the park saddle ranks proved successful, as the son of Continental Vision earned not only a world title but the reserve spot in the Junior Exhibitor Park Saddle High Point Report. Macy Peters campaigned her gelding to net 97 points from four outings, under the direction of the Indian Creek Farm team. Together, Macy Peters and Global Vision swept the junior exhibitor park saddle ranks at Jubilee Regional. They then scored a reserve grand national title before earning the roses as the Park Saddle Junior Exhibitor World Champions.

JUNIOR HORSE PARK SADDLE

Newmont's French Bellboy amassed an impressive resume and a total of 126 points at the top of the park saddle junior horse leaderboard. The HVK Bell Flaire sired youngster excelled at three horse shows under the Broadmoor banner with owner Kimberly Cramer in the saddle. French Bellboy marched off as the Park Saddle Junior Horse Grand Champion at both New England Morgan and New York Morgan. He then added to his total with the reserve streamers as the Park Saddle Four-Year-Old Reserve World Champion.

A grand total of 102 points sent ICA Daredevil into the reserve spot on the park saddle junior horse rankings. The Merriehill After Hours GCH sired entry made park saddle junior horse rounds of honor with trainer Shea Zepke in the saddle at Indiana Spring Classic, Bonnie Blue, and Blue Ridge. Breeder and owner Megan Buckley also had her turn with her homebred for top ribbons at Gold Cup, Jubilee, and in the park saddle four-year-old ranks at the Morgan Grand National.

OPEN PARK HARNESS

NS Fame & Fortune once again celebrated a stellar park harness season, culminating with the top spot on the open park harness leaderboard. The Roberto Cavalli sired entry garnered 94 points from two horse shows with Jim Taylor on the lines. Leslie and Darris Garoufalas are the proud owners of this athletic performer who began his season with a sweep of the open park harness ranks at New England Regional, including the title of the Park Harness East Coast Grand Champion. Fame & Fortune then marched to Oklahoma City where he was crowned the Park Harness Reserve World Champion for the second consecutive year.

EKL Shakedown has amassed a growing fan club who were delighted with the stallion's performances on his way to the reserve placement on the open park harness leaderboard. The Centerpiece sired stallion earned a total of 70 points in just three outings with owner and trainer Alicia Owens handling the presentation duties. Shakedown's undefeated season included a victory pass as the Morgan Park Harness winner at the Mid-Atlantic Showcase. He then starred at the Morgan Grand National as the Park Harness Grand National Champion and repeated his 2021 results as the Park Harness World Champion for the second consecutive year.

LADIES PARK HARNESS

Springmill Superstition GCH has been a familiar name at the top of the ladies park harness leaderboard and once again found himself there in 2022. A grand total of 100 points propelled the son of Nostradamus into the first place spot after appearances at three horse shows. Julianne Rafferty headed up this gelding who made four victory passes in his four ladies outings in the show ring. With Leesa Galatz on the lines, Superstition was the Park Harness Ladies winner at New England Morgan and Jubilee Regional. He also was named the Park Harness Ladies Grand National Champion before being crowned the Park Harness Ladies World Champion for the fourth time.

Winsome Hills Coolchatter teamed up with new owner Marina Abrams in 2022 under the direction of Selvin Torrez. Their success resulted in the reserve position on the ladies park harness leaderboard with a total of 63 points. The Cool Whip sired athlete claimed the reserve honors from the park harness ladies division at Jubilee Regional. With Abrams on the lines, he then continued his campaign at the Morgan Grand National, garnering 45 points there including the third place prize in the Park Harness Ladies World Championship.

AMATEUR PARK HARNESS

Get Out and Christine Matthews had a busy and successful season under the Broadmoor banner. The Get Busy sired performer claimed the top spot on the Amateur Park Harness High Point Report with a total of 129 points from six classes. Get Out made park harness amateur victory passes at Southern States and New England Morgan and also received the reserve tricolor as New England's Park Harness Amateur Reserve Grand Champion. While in Oklahoma City, Matthews drove Get Out to spotlight honors as the Park Harness Amateur Reserve World Champion.

Deborah Hamilton made the wise decision to purchase Firewind Kakewalk and transition the gelding back to the park harness ranks mid-season. Their efforts, with the help of the Taylor River Farm team, resulted in Kakewalk's reserve spot on the amateur park harness leaderboard. Hamilton drove the BKC Valiant Star sired Firewind Kakewalk to 28 points in New England's competitive amateur division before sweeping the junior exhibitor/amateur ranks at Massachusetts Morgan. They then excelled at the highest level as the Park Harness Amateur Masters Grand National Champions and secured 15 more points in the Park Harness Amateur World Championship.

JUNIOR EXHIBITOR PARK HARNESS

Dragonsmeade Alchemy starred both under saddle and in harness with Emma von Ballmoos this year. The Dragonsmeade owned and bred son of Dragonsmeade Icon netted 69 points as the leader on the junior exhibitor park harness rankings. Under the direction of Jaisen von Ballmoos, Alchemy scored a reserve ribbon at New England Regional in the Park Harness Junior Exhibitor offering. He then showcased his talents in Oklahoma City to claim the third place prize in the junior exhibitor harness qualifier as well as the reserve world title in the Park Harness Junior Exhibitor World Championship.

Clayhill Dillinger climbed to the reserve position on the junior exhibitor park harness leaderboard after just one show and two outings. Emma DuCoeur piloted her Mizrahi sired teammate in their first season together. With guidance from the Fire Run Farm team, Dillinger garnered 57 points with DuCoeur on the lines. Together, they were named the Park Harness Junior Exhibitor World Champions as well as the Park Harness Junior Exhibitor 17 and Under Reserve Grand National Champions.

JUNIOR HORSE PARK HARNESS

CRMS Blinding Lights excelled with three different drivers in 2022 that all helped him garner the top spot on the park harness junior horse leaderboard with 94 points. King-E Otto B is the proud sire of this youngster who began his season as the Park Harness Four-Year-Old winner and the Park Harness Junior Horse Grand Champion at Connecticut Morgan with Michael Murphy. Kathleen Jensen then took over the driving assignments, piloting the entry to two top three finishes at New England Morgan. Nikki Rae Woodworth was the final driver to team up with John Durkin's Blinding Lights in 2022. She added 42 points with a pair of fourth place prizes in the park harness four-year-old ranks in Oklahoma City.

Two youngsters tied for the second place spot on the junior horse ranking with a total of 80 points. In just his first year in the show ring, JMJM Mr. Jenson captured the reserve honors from his appearances at two horse shows. Will Vidler is the trainer of Jo Ann Ward's HRL Super Star Captivator sired entry. In his show ring debut, Mr. Jenson was crowned the Park Harness Junior Horse Grand Champion at New England Regional, after also securing the red ribbon in the junior horse qualifier. He also finished the season with 42 points in Oklahoma City in the park harness four-year-old ranks.

IBA Shall We Dance's undefeated season launched her into a tie in the reserve spot with 80 points. Holliston Stables LLC owns this daughter of CBMF Over The Moon, who was piloted by Mike Goebig. Her first appearance in the show ring resulted in the blue ribbon from the UPHA Park Harness Classic at New England. She then swept the park harness three-year-old division at the Morgan Grand National, claiming both the three-year-old grand national and world championship titles.

OPEN ENGLISH PLEASURE

Ultra's Talent Agent reigned supreme in 18 classes and six horse shows, helping to propel the entry to the top of the Open English Pleasure High Point Report. Stephen D. Smith's son of Ultra's Special Agent racked up a total of 169 points with both Smith as well as Drake Symbolik in the saddle. Talent Agent swept the open English pleasure division at MJMHA Classic and also secured an English pleasure youth victory. He earned additional open and youth wins at Michigan All Morgan, Tri-State Morgan, and MJMHA Summer Classic. His season campaign also included reserve ribbons from Buckeye Morgan and two victory passes from Michigan Morgan Breeders.

Muy Bien followed in the reserve spot on the open English pleasure leaderboard with 115 total points. Tamara Moravec is the proud owner of yet another entry that earned a top spot on this season's High Point Report. Sired by Pondview Tres Bien, Muy Bien was piloted in the open division by Moravec as well as Brooke Yule-Gronau and Cierra Holtz. He swept these ranks at Diamond Jubilee and Charity Fair and claimed additional open wins at Carousel Charity, Santa Barbara National, Morgan Medallion and Jingle Bell.

LADIES ENGLISH PLEASURE

It was no surprise that the four-time reigning Ladies English Pleasure World Champion, Blurred Lines GCH, made her way to the top of the ladies English pleasure leaderboard. The daughter of Queen's Glory Days celebrated yet another undefeated season with Kimberly Cramer and the Broadmoor team. Blurred Lines GCH began her 2022 season as the English Pleasure Saddle Ladies winner at Southern States. She then swept the division at New England Morgan before defending her titles as the English Pleasure Ladies Mare Grand National Champion and the English Pleasure Ladies World Champion.

Long Live The Queen CH was still eligible for the junior horse ranks in 2022, yet she took on the ladies ranks with great success, earning the reserve spot on the leaderboard. Casey McDonald Douglass guided her Rand trained mare to a total of 93 points from seven ladies classes. The daughter of DBA Street Talk was the Morgan English Pleasure Ladies winner in her debut with McDonald Douglass at UPHA Chapter 14 Spring Premiere. This duo also swept the ladies ranks at Connecticut Morgan before earning additional reserve honors at both New England Regional and Massachusetts Morgan. She brought her talents to Oklahoma City where she was awarded with the title of the English Pleasure Ladies Mare Reserve Grand National Champion.

AMATEUR ENGLISH PLEASURE

The Rand English pleasure success continued in the amateur division as the top two spots on the 2022 amateur leaderboard belonged to two Rand stablemates. Queen's Dream Girl led the way, netting 157 points. The Futurity French Command sired mare made amateur victory passes throughout the season with owner Sandy Hendrick in the saddle. Together they were the victors at UPHA Chapter 14 Spring Premiere, Connecticut Morgan, Summer Kick Off, and Massachusetts Morgan. They were the English Pleasure Saddle Amateur Reserve Grand Champions at New England and also added a world title to their resume as the English Pleasure Amateur Masters Reserve World Champions.

Stablemate Indian Creek Seahorse Sam finished just one point behind Queen's Dream Girl on the amateur leaderboard with 156 points. Sired by Dragonsmeade Sea Dragon, Seahorse Sam was partnered for the first time this season with Cecilia Bergeron Allen. They scored reserve honors in the amateur ranks from UPHA Chapter 14 Spring Premiere and Connecticut Morgan and made victory passes at Summer Kick Off and Massachusetts Morgan. While at New England Morgan, Allen and her gelding garnered dual third place prizes before concluding their season at the Morgan Grand National. It was there where this duo was crowned the English Pleasure Amateur Masters 50-60 Grand National Champions and earned the yellow streamers in the competitive English Pleasure Amateur Masters World Championship.

JUNIOR EXHIBITOR ENGLISH PLEASURE

In his first full season in the show ring, BVMS Winter Soldier rose to the top of his field as the winner of the Junior Exhibitor English Pleasure High Point Report with 169 points. The father-daughter duo of Selvin and Emily Torrez worked together with this KJM Soul Commander sired entry. Emily Torrez began her final junior exhibitor year with her new partner, showcasing him in the junior exhibitor ranks at six different horse shows. They made the trip to the winner's enclosure as the junior exhibitor victors at Gasparilla Charity, River Ridge, Morgan Gold Cup, and Jubilee. They added 16 points at Buckeye Morgan Challenge and also garnered the yellow ribbon in the English Pleasure Junior Exhibitor 16 and 17-Year-Old qualifier at the Morgan Grand National. Their final junior exhibitor appearance together resulted in 18 more points in the English Pleasure Junior Exhibitor 14-17 World Championship.

Avery Douglass and Dragonsmeade Kept Secret were yet another new team that shined in 2022. This Rand trained pair finished their first season with 167 points and the reserve spot on the junior exhibitor English pleasure leaderboard. Douglass and her Dragonsmeade Axios sired mare were the Morgan English Pleasure Junior Exhibitor Reserve Grand Champions at UPHA Chapter 14 Spring Premiere and New England Morgan. They earned the winning tricolor as the grand champions from these ranks at Connecticut Morgan, Summer Kick Off, and Massachusetts Morgan. Avery Douglass capped her first year in the cantering ranks aboard Kept Secret as the English Pleasure Junior Exhibitor 13 and Under Reserve Grand National Champions and the third place finishers in the 13 and under world championship.

MORGAN HIGH POINT REPORT

JUNIOR HORSE ENGLISH PLEASURE

Ledyard Thunderbolt made a name for herself in her first year in the under saddle division. The Astronomical sired mare came away with the top position on the English pleasure junior horse leaderboard with 138 total points from four horse shows. John Velardi had the riding assignments on behalf of owner and breeder Ledyard Company LLC throughout the season. Thunderbolt began her English pleasure campaign with two reserve finishes at Syracuse International before quickly dominating the division. She was the English Pleasure Saddle Three-Year-Old winner at New England Morgan and swept the English pleasure saddle junior horse ranks at New York Morgan. She then earned the roses in her first trip to Oklahoma City as the English Pleasure Three-Year-Old World Champion and three-year-old mare grand national champion.

Newcomer CRMS Victory Cry was a fresh face in the show ring in 2022. Cindy Mugnier has a knack for uncovering top talent, and she did so with this King-E Otto B sired entry. With guidance from David Rand, Victory Cry finished in the reserve spot on the junior horse leaderboard, amassing a total of 123 points. With Mugnier in the saddle, CRMS Victory Cry made two victory passes at both Connecticut Morgan and Massachusetts Morgan. He was also the English Pleasure Saddle Four-Year-Old winner and the English Pleasure Saddle Junior Horse Reserve Grand Champion at New England. His final show ring appearances of the year came in Oklahoma City where he added 45 points from the English Pleasure Saddle Four-Year-Old competition.

OPEN PLEASURE DRIVING

Graywood's Lennox GCH closed out his decorated legacy of success in the show ring by once again topping the Morgan Open Pleasure Driving High Point Report. Mary Daughtry's longtime show ring partner netted 131 points from six horse shows. The son of SpiceOLife Right Answer never finished lower than second throughout his season in the open ranks-a remarkable achievement in this deep division. He was the Morgan Pleasure Driving Grand Champion at Raleigh Invitational, Capital City Classic, and NC State Fair Horse Show and garnered reserve finishes at Raleigh Spring Premier, Southern States, and the North Carolina State Championship.

Dragonsmeade Provenance finished the 2022 show season with a nearly unblemished record-propelling this son of Dragonsmeade Axios into the reserve spot on the open leaderboard. Sara Foy's entry scored 129 points from his nine classes in the show ring with David Cater on the lines. Cater and Provenance swept the open pleasure driving division at Raleigh Spring Premier, Bonnie Blue, and Blue Ridge, with an additional reserve ribbon earned at UPHA Chapter 14 Spring Premiere. They then bested the world's most impressive athletes in Oklahoma City, where Provenance was first named the Pleasure Driving Stallion/Gelding Grand National Champion before being crowned the Pleasure Driving World Champion.

LADIES PLEASURE DRIVING

Open Invitation was yet another reigning world champion that secured a top spot on the High Point Report. The Merriehill Home Stretch GCH sired mare garnered 106 points from four horse shows to rise to the forefront on the ladies pleasure driving leaderboard. Libby Utecht was on the lines of her homebred to sweep the Morgan pleasure driving ladies ranks at Carousel Charity and make the victory pass as the ladies winner at Charity Fair. They added 16 points in the ladies ranks from Morgan Medallion en route to Oklahoma City. Under the direction of the Rushton Stables team, Open Invitation finished the year as the Pleasure Driving Ladies Amateur Grand National Champion and the Pleasure Driving Ladies World Champion.

Amanda Nicastro and Queen's Jim Dandy GCH have amassed an impressive show record in their time together. This Rand trained entry landed in the reserve position on the ladies rankings with 93 earned points. Nicastro and her Queen's Romeo sired partner began their ladies campaign in 2022 as the Pleasure Driving Ladies winners at Summer Kick Off-a title they repeated at New England Morgan before being crowned the Pleasure Driving Ladies Reserve Grand Champions. At the Morgan Grand National, Queen's Jim Dandy GCH was driven by Nicastro to the reserve ribbon as the Pleasure Driving Ladies Amateur Reserve Grand National Champion and added 18 points in the Pleasure Driving Ladies World Championship.

AMATEUR PLEASURE DRIVING

Equinox Voracious and Malcolm Rhodes continued as a successful and popular team in the show ring in 2022. The entry, sired by White Rock's CalioPy, rose to the top of the Amateur Pleasure Driving High Point Report with 154 total points earned in eight classes. With help from trainer Julianne Rafferty, Rhodes and Voracious made two amateur pleasure driving trips down victory lane at both UPHA Chapter 5 and Jubilee Regional. They claimed an additional top ribbon at Morgan Gold Cup as they made their way to the Morgan Grand National. While in Oklahoma City, this duo earned two grand national titles as the Pleasure Driving Amateur Gentlemen Reserve Grand National Champion and the Pleasure Driving Amateur Masters Reserve Grand National Champion. Their final appearance of the year came in the Pleasure Driving Amateur Masters World Championship, where they added 24 points to their tally.

Acorn Ridge Iowa Hawkeye has established himself as one of the country's most famed driving competitors. A total of 138 points cemented Acorn Ridge Iowa Hawkeye into the reserve spot on the amateur pleasure driving leaderboard. The SYP High Definition GCH sired entry was driven by Sharon Bender under the direction of Tom Tornatore. They made a total of five victory passes from the amateur division at Carousel Charity, Silicon Valley, and Morgan Medallion. They reached the pinnacle of success in the Morgan breed in October of 2022 as the Pleasure Driving Amateur World Champion and grand national champion.

JUNIOR EXHIBITOR PLEASURE DRIVING

Exceed's Exuberant competed in the junior exhibitor pleasure driving division at just two horse shows. However, that was all the entry of Grand Ridge Enterprises LLC needed to claim the top spot on the junior exhibitor leaderboard. Claire Kiley drove the Cool Whip sired entry to garner 91 points beginning with their sweep of the pleasure driving junior exhibitor division at New England Morgan. They then starred in Oklahoma City as the Pleasure Driving Junior Exhibitor 14-17 Reserve Grand National Champions and the third place finishers in the 14-17 world championship.

Nathania Lie enjoyed a wonderful season with her new partner, BRMF Debonair Flaire. Their efforts earned them the reserve spot on the junior exhibitor pleasure driving leaderboard with 85 points. Rushston Stables is the homebase for this HVK Bell Flaire sired gelding, who was named the Morgan Pleasure Driving Junior Exhibitor winner at Silicon Valley with Lie. This duo then picked up the reserve honors from the junior exhibitor ranks at Morgan Medallion and next set their sights on the Morgan Grand National. BRMF Debonair Flaire and Nathania Lie capped their first season together as the Pleasure Driving Junior Exhibitor 13 and Under Grand National Champions and the 13 and under reserve world champions.

JUNIOR HORSE PLEASURE DRIVING

A pair of Ledyard bred and owned entries claimed the top two spots on the pleasure driving junior horse leaderboard. Ledyard Hot Tamale led the way as the winner with 111 points. The daughter of Merriehill After Hours GCH was presented by Nancy Flower in her six classes. She began her season as the UPHA Pleasure Driving Classic winner at Morgan Gold Cup-an offering she claimed the reserve honors in at Buckeye. Hot Tamale earned dual victories at New York Morgan and claimed additional top ribbons in Oklahoma City, as she added 42 points from the three-year-old division.

Another Ledyard owned and bred entry, Ledyard Unique Love, netted 106 points from three horse shows to land in the reserve spot on the pleasure driving junior horse leaderboard. Kathleen Peebles was on the lines of this daughter of CBMF Uprising GCH, who made her show ring debut at New England Morgan by capturing the red ribbon in the Pleasure Driving Two-Year-Old class. She additionally was crowned the Pleasure Driving Two-Year-Old Stake Reserve Grand Champion at New York Regional and earned impressive finishes at the Morgan Grand National to add 54 additional points.

CLASSIC PLEASURE SADDLE

Whitemud High Society GCH had a busy 2022 show season, showing successfully in 14 classic pleasure saddle classes. Leighann Buzzard is the proud owner, trainer, and exhibitor of this daughter of Astronomicallee who landed in the top spot on the Classic Pleasure Saddle High Point Report. High Society netted 194 points beginning at Western NY Morgan where she and Buzzard were the Classic Pleasure Saddle Open winners and the Classic Pleasure Saddle Open Reserve Grand Champions. They claimed additional top prizes at Syracuse International as well as the reserve honors and two top three finishes at New England Morgan. They concluded the show season at New York Morgan where they added a whopping 106 points as the Classic Pleasure Saddle AOTS winners, the NYSMHS Member Classic Pleasure Saddle victors, and the Classic Pleasure Saddle Open Reserve Grand Champions among other honors.

CFF Personal Advantage GCH is in a league of his own in the classic pleasure saddle ranks. The Futurity French Command sired gelding cemented himself in the reserve spot on the classic leaderboard with 177 total points. Erin Kelley is his adoring owner and rider as she partners with this Rand trained entry. Together, they swept the classic pleasure saddle open division at UPHA Chapter 14 Spring Premiere, Connecticut Morgan, Summer Kick Off, New England, and Massachusetts Morgan with 10 total wins. This pair then set their sights on the breed's biggest stage beginning with the title of the Classic Pleasure Saddle Stallion/Gelding Reserve Grand National Champions. Erin Kelley and Personal Advantage's final under saddle show ring appearance of the year earned them the large blanket of roses as the Classic Pleasure Saddle World Champions.

JUNIOR EXHIBITOR CLASSIC PLEASURE SADDLE

Under the Rand banner, Dragonsmeade Odin, helped introduce his young rider, Laila McCrory to the show ring in 2022, resulting in the top position on the junior exhibitor classic pleasure leaderboard. The veteran performer scored 171 points earned at six different horse shows. With McCrory in the saddle, Dragonsmeade Odin made classic pleasure saddle junior exhibitor victory passes at Connecticut Morgan, Summer Kick Off, New England Morgan, and Massachusetts Morgan. The duo excelled at the Morgan Grand National in what was McCrory's first ever time showing in Oklahoma City's coliseum.

They capped their first season together as the Classic Pleasure Saddle Junior Exhibitor 13 and Under Reserve World Champions and the 13 and under grand national champions.

A total of 146 points launched Ledyard Code Red into the reserve spot on the Junior Exhibitor Classic Pleasure High Point Report. Ridden by Bailey Braddon and trained by Erlene Seybold-Smythe, this son of Astronomicallee in 2022 had a stellar season. With Braddon in the saddle, Code Red swept the classic pleasure junior exhibitor division at Citrus Cup and Southern States. They made another stop at Blue Ridge to be named the Classic Pleasure Saddle Junior Exhibitor Reserve Grand Champions. Their efforts were rewarded while at the Morgan Grand National, where they made the victory pass as the Classic Pleasure Saddle Junior Exhibitor 14-15 Grand National Champions and earned 18 more points in the 14-17 world championship.

CLASSIC PLEASURE DRIVING

VVM Always Dreaming and Leesa Galatz teamed up for the first time in 2022 and excelled immediately in the classic pleasure driving ranks. Their achievements earned them the top spot on the classic pleasure driving leaderboard with 176 points. The daughter of SYP High Definition GCH and VVM Dreamkeeper continues the legacy of Vegas Valley Morgans beginning with two wins at UPHA Chapter 14 Spring Premiere. With Galatz on the lines, VVM Always Dreaming was the Classic Pleasure Driving Reserve Grand Champion at Morgan Gold Cup and the Classic Pleasure Driving Junior Horse Reserve Grand Champion at Jubilee and scored additional top ribbons at New England. While in Oklahoma City, Always Dreaming added to her total points as the Classic Pleasure Driving Four-Year-Old Grand National Champion and the Classic Pleasure Driving Junior Horse World Champion.

Miles Of Fortune GCH has long succeeded in the classic pleasure driving ranks with the team of owner Nancy Andreano and trainer Melissa Morrell. The Minion Millennium sired gelding finished just two points behind VVM Always Dreaming in the reserve position on the classic driving leaderboard. The brilliant chestnut made victory passes at both UPHA

Chapter 14 Spring Premiere and Greater Boston to start his 2022 season. He then earned a trio of wins at both New England and Massachusetts Morgan, sweeping the classic pleasure driving ladies division before being named the Classic Pleasure Driving Grand Champion. The Morgan Grand National was Miles Of Fortune's final stop during the season where he added 48 more points to his tally.

OPEN HUNTER PLEASURE

For the past two seasons, Derawnda Lincoln CH has risen to the forefront of the hunter pleasure division under the direction of Amanda DuPont. Michael and Diane Munson are the proud owners of this son of CBMF Wicked Ruler, who scored 188 points to top the Open Hunter Pleasure High Point Report. Derawnda Lincoln showcased his talents in 12 classes with both DuPont and Allison Munson in the saddle. DuPont piloted the gelding to be named the Morgan Hunter Pleasure Open Grand Champion at both UPHA Chapter 14 Spring Premiere and Massachusetts Morgan. While at New England, Amanda DuPont and Lincoln topped the Hunter Pleasure Stallion/Geldings qualifier before being named the Hunter Pleasure East Coast Grand Champions. Allison Munson also piloted her entry to top ribbons in the youth division including the title of Massachusetts Morgan's Hunter Pleasure Youth Reserve Grand Champion. Derawnda Lincoln CH next brought his talents to Oklahoma City, earning 36 points in the hunter pleasure youth ranks with Munson. Amanda DuPont took the reins of the black entry for the top honors in the Hunter Pleasure Stallion/Gelding qualifier en route to the blanket of roses as the Hunter Pleasure World Champion.

A total of 141 points earned in 15 classes helped propel CBMF Lead Story into the reserve spot on the open hunter pleasure leaderboard. Cherylyn Howard owns this GLB Bell Pepper sired entry, who excelled throughout the season in both the hunter pleasure and western pleasure ranks. With Howard in the saddle, Lead Story made the victory pass as the Morgan Hunter Pleasure Grand Champion at ASHAO, Inter-County Triple, and the Randolph Fall Classic. This duo claimed additional reserve tricolors and red ribbons from Red White & Blue, IHSA Triple Point, Silver Cup, ASHAM Charity Fall, and Spooktacular Horse Show.

LADIES WESTERN PLEASURE

Just as Amanda DuPont had success in the hunter pleasure division, she also garnered multiple achievements with her western pleasure horses. Commanders Flaire was sent to the top of the ladies western pleasure ranks with 127 points claimed from three horse shows. DuPont is the proud owner of this son of Demander's Handsome Dude, who took on the ladies division at just four years of age. Commanders Flaire swept the western pleasure ladies division at Southern States and was the Western Pleasure Ladies qualifier victor at New England before ending his time in Northampton with the yellow ribbon in the Western Pleasure Ladies Championship. His season was highlighted by the title of the Western Pleasure Ladies Gelding Grand National Champion and the fourth place finish in the Western Pleasure Ladies World Championship.

VL Todd Michael is as popular with spectators as he is with the judging panel in the western pleasure division. He secured the reserve position on the ladies leaderboard with 105 points. Leslie Kelley is the owner and breeder of her beloved son of ECP Anchor Man, who was presented throughout the 2022 show season by Christine Nava-Moulthrop. Together, Moulthrop and Todd Michael swept the western pleasure ladies ranks at Connecticut Morgan and were crowned the Western Pleasure Ladies Reserve Grand Champions at New England Morgan. They collected additional points from Massachusetts Morgan before jogging out of Oklahoma's coliseum with 42 points including the third place award in the Western Pleasure Ladies World Championship.

AMATEUR WESTERN PLEASURE

The Rumsey and Erskine families enjoyed a multitude of success in 2022 both in the hunter pleasure division with MLB Stage Door Johnny and in the western pleasure division with MLB Justified. Sired by WB Blue Barry, Justified rose to the top of the Amateur Western Pleasure High Point Report with 176 points claimed in 13 classes. Mary Carlton was the proud trainer of this western competitor who was presented successfully by both Joy Rumsey and her daughter Alyssa Erskine. Justified was the Morgan Western Pleasure Amateur Grand Champion at Indiana Spring Classic and Gold Cup and earned dual victories in both the amateur and ladies amateur ranks at Michigan All

MORGAN HIGH POINT REPORT

Morgan. The entry claimed a pair of reserve titles from Tri-State Morgan as well as points from Jubilee. Joy Rumsey then closed out the season with 60 points from the western pleasure amateur ranks at the Morgan Grand National, including the third place prize in the Western Pleasure Amateur Masters 50-60 offering.

A total of just five points separated the amateur High Point Report winner from the reserve finisher, MLB Power Play GCH. Interestingly, both entries were bred by Lori Faust of MLB Farm. Cindy Becker is the owner and rider of this perennial winner sired by Play The Odds, who has achieved a decade of western pleasure success. Under the direction of the Hallmark team, Becker and Power Play earned two reserve tricolors from Big D Charity and Gold Cup as well as points from the amateur division at Jubilee. This pair then secured a trio of wins at the Morgan Grand National as the Western Pleasure Ladies Amateur Gelding 15.1 and Over Grand National Champions, the Western Pleasure Amateur Masters 61 and Over Section Two Grand National Champions, and the Western Pleasure Amateur Masters World Champion.

JUNIOR EXHIBITOR WESTERN PLEASURE

The junior exhibitor western pleasure division featured a special team in 2022. The capable Berkley Shingledecker partnered with the multi-titled and celebrated JRH Remember Me GCH in dominating fashion. This new pair concluded their first season together with an unblemished record and a total of 140 points at the top of the junior exhibitor western pleasure leaderboard. Shingledecker and the Dragonsmeade Sea Dragon sired gelding swept the western pleasure junior exhibitor division at Michigan All Morgan and New England. They also made the round of honor as the Western Pleasure Junior Exhibitor Stake winners at Gold Cup. Their final two show ring appearances of the year came with similar success at the Morgan Grand National where they left the ring as the Western Pleasure Junior Exhibitor 14-15 Grand National Champions and the 14-17 world champions.

Eryn Duncan and Cobridge El Dorado GCH were another new team that rose to the top in 2022. Under the direction of Mary Shappee, Duncan and the Brackin Equestrian LLC owned entry netted 138 points and the reserve finish on the junior exhibitor leaderboard. Duncan and El Dorado made trips to the winner's enclosure in the junior exhibitor western pleasure ranks at Big D Charity, Summer Showcase, and Morgan Medallion and also collected the reserve tricolor at Route 66. This duo jogged into the Morgan Grand National where they were crowned the Western Pleasure Junior Exhibitor 13 and Under Reserve World Champions and reserve grand national champions.

JUNIOR HORSE WESTERN PLEASURE

KMP Shutout thrilled in 2022 in the western pleasure junior horse division with Daryl Hopson. Beverley Olson celebrated the success of yet another western pleasure contender, this time with the son of Merriehill Home Stretch GCH. Shutout scored 178 points from his nearly undefeated season at the top of the junior horse High Point Report. With Hopson in the saddle, KMP Shutout swept the western pleasure junior horse division at Key Classic, Oregon Morgan Classic, and Morgan Medallion and was also the Western Pleasure Junior Horse Grand Champion at C-Fair Charity. He next captured his first set of roses as the Western Pleasure Four-Year-Old World Champion after also earning the four-year-old stallion/gelding grand national title.

He's Boogie Woogy Bugleboy made a splash in the show ring this year, culminating in the reserve spot on the junior horse leaderboard. Brenda Matusik is the proud owner and breeder of this son of Rowenda Boogie On Down, who was guided by Dustin Freiheit to 137 points. Bugleboy was the Western Pleasure Junior Horse Grand Champion at both Indiana Spring Classic and Morgan Masterpiece. He earned an additional 28 points from Gold Cup. He capped the year with 69 points from a trio of appearances in the three-year-old division at the Morgan Grand National.

IN-HAND STALLION

The Latest Trend JY CH had a memorable first year in the show ring. The young son of Town Assets was the clear leader on the In-Hand Stallion High Point Report with a dominating 246 points earned at five horse shows. Lynn Peebles was at the lead of this newcomer throughout the 2022 season. Peebles led the handsome bay to be named the Grand Champion Stallion and Junior Champion Stallion at Gold Cup and New York Morgan. The Latest Trend JY also scored two victories at Western NY Morgan and was named the Reserve Grand Champion Stallion and Stallions Two & Under winner at Buckeye. In his first trip to Oklahoma City, the youngster starred as the Two-Year-Old Stallion Grand National Champion, World Champion Junior Stallion, and Reserve World Champion Stallion for Lynn Peebles and Cindy Braham.

Two stallions tied for the reserve spot on the in-hand stallion leaderboard with 114 total points earned from two horse shows and five classes. VDM Kobalt began his in-hand campaign at Jubilee Regional. Dale Farabee's son of SpiceOLife Present Tense GCH was presented by John Warner to win the Stallions Five & Over class before being named the Senior Champion Stallion and the Grand Champion Stallion. Kobalt then appeared during the first day of competition at the Morgan Grand National, as the Five Year & Older Stallion Reserve Grand National Champion and the Reserve World Champion Senior Stallion.

Burkland Tough Enough tied with VDM Kobalt for the reserve position on the stallion ranking. The Robinson Family Trust owns this No Contest GCH sired entry who was led throughout the season by David Rand. The youngster starred at New England Morgan as the Two-Year-Old Colts winner, the Junior Champion Stallion, and the Grand Champion Stallion. In his first trip to Oklahoma City, Tough Enough was named the Two-Year-Old Stallion Reserve National Champion and the Reserve World Champion Junior Stallion.

IN-HAND GELDING

Lynn Peeples struck again with yet another sensational two-year-old in-hand victor. This time, it was Ledyard Up The Tempo at the top of the in-hand gelding leaderboard with 216 points. Man In Black GCH was the proud sire of this Ledyard Company owned and bred gelding who made in-hand victory passes at both Gold Cup and Buckeye. He additionally earned points as New York Morgan's Junior Champion Gelding and Grand Champion Gelding among other wins. Up The Tempo next succeeded at the Morgan Grand National, winning a total of three world titles and one grand national ribbon. He made the trip to the winner's enclosure as the Two-Year-Old Gelding Grand National Champion, World Champion Junior Gelding, Reserve World Champion Gelding, and the Futurity In-Hand Two-Year-Old Gelding World Champion.

EKL The Fire Inside represented his up and coming sire, EKL Shakedown, in the reserve position on the in-hand gelding leaderboard with 118 points. Led by Whitney Bodnar, Eli and Rebecca Lapp's homebred made his show ring debut at Jubilee as the Yearling & Under Geldings victor, the Junior Champion Gelding, and the Reserve Grand Champion Gelding. He then traveled to Oklahoma City to star as Shakedown's first world champion offspring. The Fire Inside wore the roses as the Futurity In-Hand Yearling Gelding World Champion and the Yearling Gelding Grand National Champion.

IN-HAND MARE

Steve and Jill Tassinari had reason to be proud of their homebred, Ledgefields Juliet, who cinched the top spot on the In-Hand Mare High Point Report with 174 points. David Rand had the presentation assignments of the young mare sired by Ledgefields Jagged Edge. Juliet followed in the footsteps of her famous sire in her show ring debut at New England. She modeled her way to the top of the Two-Year-Old Fillies and the Junior Champion Mare offering before earning the tricolor as the Grand Champion Mare. The Morgan Grand National was the next stop on Juliet's campaign. Here, she started her week as the Two-Year-Old Mare Grand National Champion and World Champion Junior Mare. She bested her older competition to capture the Reserve World Champion Mare honors before ending her week as the Futurity In-Hand Two-Year-Old Mare Reserve World Champion.

Saralin Slam Dunk has impressed in her short career in the show ring. This multi-titled mare is yet another member of the Robinson Family Trust's show string who earned a position on the High Point Report. The daughter of No Contest GCH accrued 150 points in the reserve position on the in-hand mare rankings. Tim Roesink led the mare down victory lane as Gold Cup's Grand Champion Mare, Senior Champion Mare and Three & Four-Year-Old Mares winner. Her win streak continued at the Morgan Grand National first as the Three-Year-Old Mare Grand National Champion and World Champion Senior Mare before ultimately wearing the blanket of roses as the World Champion Mare.

WALK/TROT EQUITATION

Ella Kate Payne is the definition of versatility. She climbed to the top of the Walk/Trot Equitation High Point Report with 298 points earned from wins in all three equitation seats. This marks the most points in any High Point Report category in 2022. Under the direction of Tricia Waclena, Ella Kate Payne swept the hunt seat equitation and western seat equitation divisions at Citrus Cup and made an additional western victory pass at Gold Cup. She scored a trio of victories at Summer's End winning the saddle seat equitation, western seat equitation and hunt seat equitation walk/trot qualifiers. Payne additionally shined at the conclusion of the year at the Morgan Grand National. She rode Delaware's Night Life GCH to be named the Walk/Jog Western Seat Equitation 10-11 World Champion and teamed up with MEM Star Power to garner the reserve streamers as the Walk/Trot Saddle Seat Classic Equitation 10-11 Reserve World Champion. Ella Kate Payne also added to her point total by garnering top hunt seat equitation ribbons aboard Game Date.

Heidi DiRusso has quickly risen to the forefront of the equitation division in both the saddle seat and hunt seat equitation ranks showing as an 8 and under rider. Under the direction of David Rand and Cindy Mugnier, DiRusso garnered 272 points in the reserve spot on the leaderboard. Heidi DiRusso teamed up with her saddle seat partner, CBMF Cease Fire GCH and her hunt seat mount Playmor's Juke Box Hero GCH in 2022. She made victory passes in both the hunt seat equitation walk/trot and saddle seat equitation walk/trot ranks at Connecticut Morgan and Massachusetts Morgan. DiRusso also excelled at New England Morgan by garnering tricolors in the championships of both equitation seats. She then traveled to Oklahoma City where she enjoyed an undefeated week culminating as the Walk/Trot Saddle Seat Classic Equitation 9 and Under World Champion and the Walk/Trot Hunt Seat Equitation 9 and Under World Champion.

WALK/TROT PLEASURE

Molly Jirik had a year to remember in 2022 aboard Arcola's Last Harmony. Dustin Freiheit directed Jirik and the entry of Kim and Sarah Anderson straight to the top of the Morgan Walk/Trot Pleasure High Point Report after their success in both the western pleasure and hunter pleasure divisions. Molly Jirik and the HVK Bell Flaire sired gelding garnered 225 points with great success including their sweep of the western pleasure walk/jog ranks at both Indiana Spring Classic and Jubilee Regional. While at Jubilee, they also scored a hunter pleasure victory pass and secured the reserve streamers as the Hunter Pleasure Walk/Trot Reserve Grand Champions after also earning top ribbons at Morgan Masterpiece and Buckeye. This pair chose to focus solely on the western pleasure division at the Morgan Grand National, capping their year in victorious fashion as the Walk/Jog Western Pleasure 10-11 World Champions and 10-11 grand national champions.

Two top walk/trot performers tied for the reserve spot in the walk/trot pleasure leaderboard, each with 161 points. Victory's Valedictorian garnered points with two exhibitors and in two divisions in 2022 under the direction of Bobbie Jo Jaakkola. The son of Apollo's Reflection competed in the walk/jog western pleasure ranks with Mackley Griffis and in the hunter ranks with Emersyn Skiba. With Skiba in the saddle, Victory's Valedictorian swept the hunter pleasure walk/trot division at MJMHA Classic, MJMHA Summer Classic, and Michigan Morgan Breeders. Griffis and Valedictorian garnered western blue ribbons and reserve honors from MJMHA Classic, Michigan All Morgan, and MJMHA Sumner Classic, as well as an impressive top ten ribbon from the Morgan Grand National's walk/jog western pleasure 10-11 division.

Show ring veteran Springmill Madison tied with Victory's Valedictorian on the leaderboard as the reserve finisher. Mary Carlton was once again tasked with training this daughter of Ultra's Special Agent, who carried Allie Awwad to victory in 2022. This pair showed in 14 classes throughout the season, enjoying the sweep of the hunter pleasure walk/trot ranks at Tri-State Morgan and the reserve streamers in the walk/trot hunter pleasure championship at MJMHA Summer Classic. They scored additional impressive ribbons from Indiana Spring Classic, Michigan All Morgan, Gold Cup, Jubilee, and Michigan Morgan Breeders en route to Oklahoma City. Springmill Madison and Allie Awwad finished their season with great success as the Walk/Trot Hunter Pleasure 9 and Under Reserve World Champions.

Zoe Kovanis-Wilson is a versatile exhibitor that succeeded at the highest level in multiple divisions, including the showmanship ranks. A total of 83 points landed this talented young lady at the top of the showmanship leaderboard after her success at four different horse shows. Katie Mair and the Sterling team guided Kovanis-Wilson and her partner Qua-Drangle GCH throughout the season. This duo was the Fitting & Showmanship winner at both Indiana Spring Classic and Tri-State Morgan and claimed the reserve honors in this same offering at Michigan All Morgan. Kovanis-Wilson's dreams came true in Oklahoma City as she and Qua-Drangle GCH were ultimately crowned the Fitting & Showmanship 13 and Under World Champions, after claiming the yellow ribbon in the 10-13 qualifier.

Angela Miller claimed the reserve spot on the showmanship High Point Report with 77 points, after excelling in three classes during the season. Scott Nevers directed Angela Miller and Stolen Kiss to the Morgan Fitting & Showmanship 17 and Under blue ribbon at Gold Cup. The Morgan Grand National was their next stop where this pair began their week as the Fitting & Showmanship 10-13 Grand National Champions en route to the reserve streamers as the Fitting & Showmanship 13 and Under Reserve World Champions.

ROADSTER TO BIKE

Winterset ThymeAfterThyme had a need for speed in 2022, propelling Clare Simpson's homebred to the top spot on the roadster to bike leaderboard. Page Champion was in the silks behind the son of Winterset Thyme 'N Agin, to earn 109 points from seven classes. Together, they swept the roadster to bike division at Connecticut Morgan and made a victory pass as the Morgan Roadster To Bike Reserve Grand Champions at New York Morgan. This duo shined at New England Morgan as the Roadster To Bike East Coast Reserve Grand Champions and capped their season at the Morgan Grand National with top ribbons to add 33 points to their winning tally.

ICM It's Miller Time made his roadster debut in 2022 on the breed's biggest stage- the Grand National and World Championship Morgan Horse Show. Skyrose Enterprises LLC had reason to be proud of this Chandelle High Orion sired entry who made three bike appearances in Oklahoma City, resulting in the reserve spot on the roadster High Point Report with 78 points. Paul Brisco drove It's Miller Time to be named the Roadster To Bike Amateur Reserve Grand National Champion, while Bob Kellert picked up an additional reserve grand national title from the Roadster To Bike offering and the third place finish in the Roadster To Bike World Championship.

ROAD HACK

CFS Gentleman's Queen was the second entry of Michael and Diane Munson to secure a spot on the High Point Report. Sarah Munson was teamed with the daughter of Sharp Dressed Gentleman throughout 2022 to garner 70 points in the leading position on the road hack leaderboard. Amanda DuPont trained Munson and her mare, who were the Road Hack victors at Morgan Gold Cup. This pair's 2022 highlights included 24 points from New England Morgan and 11 more from Massachusetts Morgan. Sarah Munson and Gentleman's Queen capped the season with 15 more points in the Road Hack Hunt Seat Finals at the Morgan Grand National.

MORGAN HIGH POINT REPORT

A trio of riders helped Vincenzo's Style CH cinch the reserve spot on the road hack rankings with 58 points. Madeleine Monica is the proud owner of this SLB Da Vinci sired entry, who was trained by Jessica Cavanaugh. Sally Balletto was the first rider aboard Vincenzo's Style to start the season with the Road Hack victory as Morgan Masterpiece. Karen Starich then took the reins to garner the red ribbon in the Road Hack offering at Jubilee. Reece Hart was the third and final rider aboard Vincenzo's Style-piloting him to the prestigious title of the Road Hack Hunt Seat Finals Grand National Champion in Oklahoma City.

CARRIAGE

Final Judgement had a busy schedule at both New England Morgan and Massachusetts Morgan in 2022. Bill and Shirley Haas' Tug Hill Whamunion sired homebred netted 224 points from two horse shows and 19 classes at the top of the Carriage High Point Report. With help from Elsie Rodney, Final Judgement excelled in his first year back in the carriage ranks since 2017. Shirley Haas was on the lines as Final Judgement won blue ribbons at New England Morgan as the Carriage Driving Fault & Out Limit winner and the Carriage Driving Turnout Limit victor among other top honors. While at Massachusetts Morgan, this team rose to the top as the winners of the Carriage Driving Obstacles Fault & Out Limit, Carriage Driving Obstacle Pick Your Own Route Limit, Carriage Driving Working Limit, Carriage Driving Reinsmanship Limit, and Carriage Driving Cross Country Obstacles Limit.

For the second year in a row, San Andreas Bay claimed the reserve spot on the Carriage High Point Report, much to the delight of Doug and Andrea Coursey. The son of Wintergreen Carlos Santana finished the year just four points behind Final Judgement with 220 total earned points. While at New England Morgan,

San Andreas Bay and Doug Coursey claimed the reserve honors in the Carriage Driving Gamblers Choice class among other top ribbons in the competitive carriage ranks. They continued their success at Massachusetts Morgan with impressive finishes in the carriage driving obstacles and carriage dressage divisions. Their final appearances came at the Morgan Grand National where San Andreas Bay was named the Carriage Obstacle Driving Gambler's Choice Grand National Champion as well as the Carriage Obstacle Driving Pick Your Route Reserve National Champion. The competitor finished his season with Coursey collecting 21 points in the Carriage Obstacle Driving World Championship.
