

UNSUNG HEROES Of The Industry

PERRY

HOW DID PERRY BECOME A PART OF YOUR LESSON PROGRAM?

Perry had a severe case of EPM with his previous owner. Susan (previous owner) and Heather Boodey (trainer) exhausted many avenues to get him well. After sometime in turnout time, Heather and Susan allowed me the opportunity to try him into my program.

DESCRIBE A TYPICAL WEEK IN THE LIFE OF PERRY:

A typical week in Perry's life includes a lot of playtime turned out. Then he comes back in his stall and bangs at the door for treats. He likes to teach short lessons in mild weather because he doesn't like to get sweaty.

WHAT ARE HIS GREATEST ATTRIBUTES FOR BEING AN UNSUNG HERO IN YOUR PROGRAM?

Perry will do any job I ever ask. He teaches small children how to show; babysits a nervous adult; teaches riders to canter or use a full bridle. One season, he will teach camp and lessons; then show in performance with riders that do not own a horse. He has been successful in World Cup and other trainers have borrowed him from me for their special rider.

ANY OTHER COMMENTS?

Perry (otherwise known as "P" or "P-Head") is sooo lazy. I always say that he refuses to give a ton of effort at home because he's holding it in for a horse show. Perry hits a different gear when he gets to take a victory pass.
