#foalsN focus

Some are just taking their first steps, others are shedding, but the quality of the 2023 foal crop has been spectacular week after week in all of our show breeds.

Ross Millin had a recent visit to Cornerstone Farm where he has some breeding stock and he came away with some great shots. He had the Champion picture of a foal owned by breeder Pamela Bowers. This filly is by (SA) Tango's Daylight out of Miss Castle Dreams (by HS Castle Vision).

Reserve Champion on this very competitive week went to a photo that was submitted by Amber Edwards on behalf of SSLLC. This beautiful Morgan filly is by world champion Jus' Sayin' out of AW Je Veux Ton Amour. Coming in with Top 3 honors was another Ross Millin photo, this one submitted by owner/breeder Cindy Kolmeier. This filly by Undulata's Nutcracker out of Destiny's Glory Hallelujah (a full sister to Hallelujah Chorus) is a triplet. Sandy Lilly has the two colts of the family.

Send your best high resolution 2023 foal shots to funkhouser@saddlehorsereport.com and include the sex of the foal, the breeding and the owner.
