"Do what you can, with what you have, where you are"

- THEODORE ROOSEVELT

MY JOURNEY: Showing horses has been a part of my life for as long as I can remember. I was sat atop a horse as early as a few months old and that hasn't changed to this day. Throughout my 15 years in the show ring there have been many life lessons that I have been able to take away. One of the most cherished lessons I have gained is that your gonna get whatever you put into a project. How hard you work determines how successful you are going to be. And this is something that I am able to take forward in life, in and out of the show ring. The second thing that I have taken away from this time in my life is how to work as a team and have mutual respect. Teamwork is a skill that will take you very far in life. When showing horses the saying "it takes two to tango" really comes to life. You both have to be on your game and giving it your all, without that your goals will be hard to achieve.
