

LOOKING BACK... Memories

2010 ASHEVILLE LIONS CLUB

CH Juliette's Deja Blue and Andrea Athanasuleas opened the 2010 season as Asheville's Amateur Ladies Three-Gaited Champions. This was the second of three times that they won this championship under the direction of Matt Shiflet.

Perfection Me and Mike Tunstall topped a large field of top youngsters in the Junior Three-Gaited Park. The full sibling to CH New York's Perfect Gift joined the list of winners for Glasscock Financial Services LLC.

Elisabeth Goth enjoyed a tricolor start to the 2010 show season in Asheville. She rode Harley Rally to the winner's circle where she more recently visited with the likes of CH Fox Grape's The Tiger Lilly, CH Bravo Blue, Here Comes The Boom and Sugarland among others.

CH Callaway's Annabel Allison and Debbie Foley were joined by George Schmid following their tricolor ride in the Five-Gaited Championship. The record-setting CH Caramac daughter opened each season at Asheville from her debut in 2009 through to her final show.

The sister act of Ashley Wilson and Hunter Chancellor made ten victory passes with their great teammates. The list of champions included; CH Platinum's New Look, CH-EQ Imagine My Surprise, CH I'm McDreamy and CH The Attache Orchid.

CH Real Action continued his undefeated record as the 2010 Asheville Junior Three-Gaited winner. Kim Cowart and Robin McKenzie-Vuillermet celebrated the victory on the way to the 2010 World's Champion of Champions Junior Three-Gaited with Peter Cowart in the irons.

Todd Miles directed Tara Grom to a blue ribbon debut with CH With Style And Grace as well as a tricolor ride with CH Perfect Vengeance. Grom went on to national and world's championships in 2010 with both horses.

