

LOOKING BACK... Memories

BONNIE BLUE 2010

Maureen and Rich Campbell supported Bonnie Blue with a number of top ponies over the years. The 2010 lineup included Roadster Pony Champion CH Stat and CH Heartland Candidate in his show ring finale as Hackney Pony Champion with owner Sandra Surber.

Ashley and Kaitlyn Creekmore celebrated their winning rides at Bonnie Blue with Lynda Freseth. Ashley earned the blue ribbon in the walk/trot 8 and under, while Kaitlyn rode Heired Up to the Junior Exhibitor Three-Gaited Championship.

Carriage Lane Farm opened the 2010 season with a host of winning performances as Tammie and John Conatser celebrated with Emily Druckman on her 18th birthday. In addition to Druckman's victory pass aboard CH Heathermoor's Prince, the winning lineup included CH The Daily Lottery, CH League Of Nations, CH Work It, Respectfully Yours, Callaway's Cassis and Stock Up.

Tiffany and Steve Wheeler directed Dr. Owen Weaver to the Bonnie Blue winner's circle in her debut with the appropriately named This Blues For You. Fox Grape Farm proudly supported Bonnie Blue as they represent the state of Virginia as a leading breeder of American Saddlebreds.

CH Callaway's Born For This and Allison Combs continued their success winning the Ladies Five-Gaited blue and tricolor at the 2010 Bonnie Blue. They earned the tricolor for the second of three consecutive years as they went on to earn the 2010 World's Champion Of Champions Ladies Amateur Five-Gaited.

Cape Grace and Owen Binnie enjoyed a stellar debut season. The Bonnie Blue Junior Exhibitor Three-Gaited Park Champions earned tricolors at each of their six shows in 2010 under the Cater Stables banner.

World's Champion Of Champions in 2009, CH New York Style and Ben Ferrey opened the 2010 season in tricolor form. They topped the Junior Exhibitor Three-Gaited Pleasure 14-17 Championship under the direction of longtime trainer Marilyn Macfarlane.

