

LOOKING BACK... Memories

CONNECTICUT MORGAN 2010

Gary and Rosemary Saccocia cheered on granddaughter Isabelle Scott to blue and tricolor ribbons in the leadline competition. She went on to many more victories in the walk/trot and junior exhibitor divisions.

Wylie Fox began his tricolor hunter pleasure career in 2010 with Keely Sogoloff aboard for owner/breeder Bonnie Sogoloff. The Smoke Signal son headed west in 2012 and has enjoyed a long and successful partnership with Maggie Boyd.

Brenda Varney enjoyed a tricolor show under the Legacy Stables banner. Mike and Liz Murphy directed Varney with Equinox Beau Jangles (pictured), CN The Commanding Touch and Aspenglow Genesis.

Born, raised and retired at the University Of Connecticut, UC Ringmaster was the perfect choice to be inducted into the Hall of Fame at the 50th anniversary of Connecticut Morgan. Still enjoying the spotlight at age 32, he was crowned the 1991 and 1993 English Pleasure World Champion with Leslie Parker.

The Sebring family had a lot to celebrate including youngest daughter Sara's high school graduation. Jim, Jessica, Sara and Carolyn continue to be mainstays in the industry in honor of Harry Sebring.

Nikki Rae Woodworth topped an entertaining field of 13 to be crowned the Trainer's Equitation Challenge Champion. Nena Marlin shared Ultra's Proclamation with Woodworth and then added her own tricolor in the Senior Saddle Seat Equitation Championship.

Showing in the 13 and under division, Michelle Quinlik enjoyed dual tricolors in 2010 aboard Manchester In Demand (pictured) and MEM Once Again. Her current world titled mounts are SPR Wing It, Cimi's Voodoo Daddy and Ledyard Perfect Manhattan.

Hannah Kelley had a great show under the direction of David Rand. Her tricolor performances came with SBS Power Play (pictured), Lamborghini In Black and Cherrydale Acappella.

