

LOOKING BACK... Memories of DEVON

HORSE SHOW & COUNTRY FAIR

THE 2010 DEVON HORSE SHOW

The Spiderman made his spectacular debut at the 2010 Devon Horse Show. Rodney Hicks drove the four-year-old to his first of seven Devon Hackney Pony Championships under the ownership of Edward Ochenschlager.

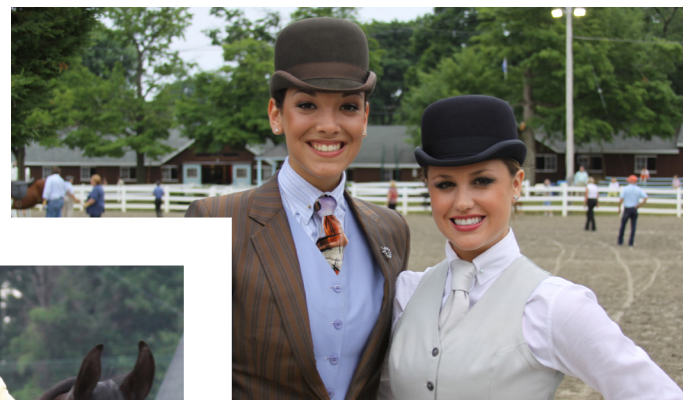

Holli Esposito enjoyed a stellar show with victory passes for SJ The Smart Lady (pictured) and CH Sightline. Rob Turner rode CH Sightline to the Three-Gaited Park Championship.

There is a mutual affection between Carson Kressley and the Devon audience. His fan club cheered him on to victory in 2010 with Amateur Fine Harness Champion Hoof Prince as well as Amateur Five-Gaited Champion Enchanting Memories.

Catherine Wheeler continued her long family tradition of Devon victory passes as she rode CH Amelia Heir Cat to the Junior Exhibitor Three-Gaited Championship. After a world title later that year, younger sister Sallie-Mason took over the reins to repeat the Devon victory in 2011.

Good friends and World Cup teammates Jessica Moctezuma and Jacqueline Beck enjoyed a fun time at Devon. Both ladies have gone on to many more great horse show memories and victory passes over the years.

Allyson Ehle and CH Sir Winston C returned to the site of their blue ribbon debut a year earlier in the Dixon Oval. They added the Country Pleasure Championship tricolor to the qualifier blue in 2010.

Jayne Romano and CH Free Willy raced around the Dixon Oval to the cheers of the audience. They sped away with roadster pony wins at Devon in 2010, 2011 and 2012.

Annika Bruggeworth had a big time as always at Devon. Her winning string in 2010 included Friesian Pleasure Champion Gooitzen Fan Teakesyl and Five-Gaited Champion CH Attache's Crown Royal.

