

LOOKING BACK... Memories Of

F.A.S.H. SPRING 2010

The Paper Girl JJW made her saddle debut at the 2010 F.A.S.H. Spring with breeder Jay Wood. The daughter of Catalyst and JJW The Paper Princess was shown later by Sarah Moses and most recently by Julia Wester in five-gaited and five-gaited pleasure.

Andy Marlett guided Alors On Danse to the Morgan English Pleasure Championship in her debut show for Jane Jensen. She went on to numerous titles in a variety of divisions, capping her show ring career as 2015 Grand National Champion Roadster Under Saddle.

CH Bella Marietta and Claudia Gardner Sipp showed off their winning style on victory lane as Adult Country Pleasure Champions. Sipp was the owner and breeder of the charismatic daughter of The New York Times and CH Marie Stonewall LS.

Mary Ann Huddleston and Callaway's Hit Parade celebrated the Adult English Pleasure Championship. Huddleston and the son of CH Will Shriver enjoyed a long and successful partnership.

Reserve world's champions in 2009, CH The Party Planner and Breanna Lukan teamed up for the tricolor ride in the F.A.S.H. Spring Junior Exhibitor Country Pleasure Championship directed by Jay Wood.

Madison Mulligan rode Mahogany Heiress to the Junior Exhibitor Three-Gaited Show Pleasure Championship. Madison and younger sister Morgan both made victory passes aboard Margaret Easton's Supreme Heir daughter under the direction of Marie Bouvet.

Donna Beck had a big cheering section as she drove CH Carissimo to the Country Pleasure Driving Championship for the second year in a row. The CH Caramac son enjoyed a host of wins with Donna as well as Paula Beck before closing out his career as the tricolor partner of Dr. Steve Gilman.
