

LOOKING BACK... Memories Of

KENTUCKY SPRING PREMIER 2010

Blue Willow Farm enjoyed a blue ribbon start to the season as Julie Kaufman, Cristina Prows-Lepera, Andrea Steponaitis, Ann Fitzpatrick, Edwina Hutto, Joe Elam and Janalyn Prows gathered under the banner.

Cyndi Simmons teamed up with CH Hey Joe to win the Amateur Five-Gaited Championship directed by Tammy DeVore. Cyndi Simmons-Meintjes is now the owner and trainer at HighVeld Farm in Burlington, Kentucky.

Four-year-old Brookhill's Glam Slam starred as the Three-Gaited Champion with Jackie Tanner in the irons for breeder, the O'Brien Family Trust. The Periapator daughter has gone on to many more victories with current owner Elizabeth Ghareeb and is also the dam of world titleholders Nutcracker Princess, Slamcracker and Glamorous Nuts.

In her first year out of academy, Jordyn Isgrigg teamed up with CH Olympic Charm for the walk/trot reserve tricolor at Kentucky Spring Premier. Helen Robertson and the Infinity Stable team have directed Isgrigg to many titles throughout her junior exhibitor career and into the amateur division in 2019.

Joe and Sally Jackson, Mary Sue Walker, Melissa Moore and Jennifer McGowan celebrated a winning start to the season for Sunrise Stables. Their victorious entries included CH Callaway's Carnival In Rio, CH Hi On Heir, Charming Day and CH Hillside Sensation.

Susan Olcott teamed up with Callaway's Blue Waltz for the Amateur Three-Gaited blue ribbon to start the 2010 season. Their successful six-year partnership continued with victory passes in the show pleasure and driving divisions as well.
