THE 2010 MADISON CLASSIC

Zachary White struck a winning pose following the Walk/Trot Saddle Seat Equitation Championship directed by Ray Krussell. He capped the season as the UPHA Walk/Trot Challenge Cup Reserve National Champion for the second year in a row.

Ed and Denise Thorsen cheered on their daughter, Dr. Sarah Thorsen as she made her final rides to sweep the amateur five-gaited division aboard Sensational Charm. The 2001 Triple Crown winner, Sarah Thorsen was about to begin her medical career in 2010.

Marlene and Neva La Fleur celebrated with Sandy Bernd after her tricolor ride aboard Amateur Three-Gaited Champion Born Independent. The La Fleur Stables banner proudly hangs at the Madison Classic each year.

CH Trust In Love began her show career as a three-gaited star as Cory Eickholt rode her to Madison's junior/novice blue for Bob Jensen Stables. The Trust Fund daughter has gone on to many wins with Megan Dragich, Chris Hawley, and most recently Allyson Ehle and Nancy Ehle.

Corbin Smith followed her law school graduation with a tricolor drive on the lines of CH Coco Loco. A many time world's champion in fine harness, the CH The King Of Highpoint son added a reserve world title in the pleasure driving division in 2010.

MBA Equestrians Inc. celebrated numerous Madison Classic victories. Todd Valentine congratulated Ashley Baird on her tricolor wins with Callaway's Rosemary and Thyme, CH Star Spangled Steel and as Saddle Seat Equitation Champion.

CH Matisse and Narin Avci started off the 2010 season as Madison's Junior Exhibitor Country Pleasure Champions. The Rex Symbol son went on to many more winning seasons with Avci in addition to numerous other riders.
