

LOOKING BACK... Memories

MICHIGAN ALL-MORGAN 2010

Lyssa Bongaars started off the 2010 season as Michigan All-Morgan Saddle Seat Equitation Champion. Cheered on by her mom Gail, she went on to a great season with victory passes at Mid-A, Bluegrass and Jubilee as well.

Katie Mair teamed Celia Salmon with Fait Accompli to win the Amateur English Pleasure Championship. Mair was back in the irons of Marie Frank's grand gelding later that year to earn their second Ladies English Pleasure World Championship.

Olivia Lahr opened the 2010 season with two blue ribbon rides at Michigan All-Morgan. She capped the year as the Senior Hunt Seat Equitation World Champion as well as Junior Exhibitor Western Pleasure 14-17 World Champion.

Sara Heidenreich and Hylee's Fanflaire GCH were an unbeatable pair in their five years together. Starting in the walk/jog division, they earned countless victories including several world titles in the pleasure and equitation divisions.

Crystal Farms riders swept the Junior Exhibitor Hunter Pleasure Championship tricolors. Mary Carlton directed Gabrielle Graves to the reserve aboard Twin Peak Heritage while Ellery Walker teamed with Partridge Hill Prophet for the top prize.

Marie Wallich and Jenny Miller both enjoyed victory passes at the 2010 Michigan All-Morgan under the Morgan Valley banner. Both have gone on to many more wins from the junior exhibitor competition and onto the amateur division.

