

LOOKING BACK... Memories Of

MIDWEST CHARITY 2010

Carol Hillenbrand's smile said it all as she teamed up with CH League Of Nations to sweep the Adult Country Pleasure competition for the third year in a row.

Marc Of Charm returned to the site of his blue ribbon saddle debut a year earlier as he was named Junior Five-Gaited Champion in 2010. Lionel Ferreira and the grand stallion continued an undefeated 2010 season at Lexington and Louisville for Riverdreams LLC.

Mary and Jeff McClean enjoyed another memorable show at Midwest with the ponies of Golden Creek Farms. The winning contingent included Regal's Trademark LF, Twin Willows Handsome Dan, Last Call and Heartland Elise.

George Schmid joined Debbie Foley under the Silver Brook banner following her second Midwest Five-Gaited Championship in as many years. In 2010, she made the final victory pass aboard CH Callaway's Annabel Allison.

Midwest Charity was the site of Cedar Creek Flambeau's sensational saddle debut as Jim Lowry rode the three-year-old stallion to the Morgan Park Saddle top honors for Cedar Creek Farm.

Bob and Tonya Brison of Fairview Farm celebrated a successful show with their clients. Their winning entries came from the open, amateur and young horse divisions.

The 2010 World Cup Team USA was proudly represented at Midwest Charity by Scooter Scheurich, Nick Maupin, Brittany Baird, Abigail Mutrux, Brittany McGinnis, James Nichols and Barbe Smith.
