

LOOKING BACK...
Memories Of
RALEIGH INVITATIONAL 2010

Sage Schweickert and CH It's Yabba Dabba Doo Time teamed up to win the Three-Gaited Show Pleasure 13 & Under Championship in their debut show directed by Suzy Shiflet. The grand Attache's Liquid Asset son enjoyed a long and successful career with many riders including Allie Wellington (Nunley), Sydney Carter and Payton Nicole Shiflet.

Comiskey Park GCH and Leah Ling added two more victories to their winning debut at the 2010 Raleigh Spring Premier under the Tara Farm banner. They capped the season as the Junior Exhibitor English Pleasure Reserve World Champions, and the HVK Courageous Flaire son was most recently the 2019 Walk/Trot Hunter Pleasure 10-11 Reserve World Champion with Gabriele Wright.

Megan Crider and It's The Rage moved to a new division in 2010 with a pair a Raleigh Invitational victories in five-gaited show pleasure. The CF First Night Out daughter and Crider previously enjoyed wins in the walk/trot and show pleasure divisions.

Lewis Eckard rode Better See It My Way (known then as Annie Duke) to the Junior/Novice Five-Gaited blue for Rebekah Cloninger. The daughter of CH The King Of Highpoint enjoyed a successful career capped with winning rides in 2016 by Lauren Greenwald and Sherry Frankel.

Graywood's Lennox GCH and Mary Daughtry have done North Carolina proud for over a decade. They won the Raleigh Invitational Morgan Pleasure Driving Championship for the first of seven times in 2010.

Sarah Martin and CH Hayden Fox were joined by Kathryn Rodosky to celebrate their winning ride in the Saddle Seat Equitation Championship. Martin also matched up with My Charming Asset for a blue ribbon ride in the performance division.

