

LOOKING BACK... Memories

THE SOUTHERN STATES REGIONAL 2010

Dragonsmeade Axios made his eagerly awaited show ring debut at the 2010 Southern States Regional. With Tim Roesink on the lines, the dynamic black stallion was crowned Park Harness Champion to the delight of his proud owners and breeders, the Fu family.

Dragonsmeade Carnegie Hall and Dan Kelley enjoyed their 2010 debut at Southern States on their way to an undefeated season. They swept the Amateur Pleasure Driving top honors from Raleigh to Northampton, Mid-A and on to Oklahoma directed by David Rand.

Enjoying a tricolor trip to Raleigh for the second year in a row, Graycliff Tony and Dawn (Fire) Montgomery won the Amateur English Pleasure Championship. The grand stallion capped his show ring career as an 8-time world champion earning his final three with Hannah McBain.

Megan and Howie Schatzberg introduced daughter Jacqueline to the Morgan world at the 2010 Southern States Regional. Jacqueline Schatzberg never looked back as she is now a World Champion Morgan rider.

CBMF Class Act posed as the Grand Champion Mare for the second year in a row. Jim McCleester handled the lead and continues along with wife Michelle to direct her successful show career for owner Robin Long.

When you think of Raleigh, Morgan Horses, show ring competition and hospitality, you think of Frances Pugh and Southern States. In addition to hosting the renowned Memorial Day picnic, Mrs. Pugh also cheered on the stellar entries from Tara Farm.

Riverchase Starbound and Molly O'Guinn teamed up for a big win in the Junior Exhibitor Hunter Pleasure Championship. The O'Guinn family and trainer Amanda DuPont have enjoyed many more victories with the grand gelding including at the 2019 Southern States.
